At Age of 77

NEW YORK, May 15-David Belasco, one of America's great showmen and dean of the country's theatrical producers, died here yes-WALLPAPERS - GLASS terday afternoon at the age of 7 years. He passed away painlessly in his hotel apartment in the presence of his daughter, Mrs. Morris

> Last winter, Belasco had a serous illness with pneumonia which left him with a weak heart. Despite this, he had refused to give up active work though he had been far from well in recent months.

During his life time in connection with the drama, Belasco wrote no less than 400 plays.

His inherent love for his work and his infinite capacity for painstaking'in every detail made Be!asco one of the most successful men in the theatrical world.

That subject brought a vigorous outburst from him when it was mentioned on the occasion of his 75th birthday anniversary.

"I shall retire when I am carried feet first out of the theatre," ha said. "I expect to be working hard and producing plays when those who say I should retire have passed away. Why, I've been on and off the stage ever since I was eight months old. My first appearance was with my mother in a motherand-infant part."

A. E. Whitmore

TN addition to being associated with many other public activities in Western Canada, A. E. Whitmore, of Regina, is vice-chairman of the Executive and Finance Committee of the World's Grain Exhibition and Conference.

He was born at Dunville, Haldiman County, Ontario, in 1876, but when quite young came to the west with his parents. He received his preliminary education in the Regina and Moose Jaw schools, later attending Upper Canada College, To-

Ranching in the district west of Yellow Grass, Saskatchewan, was Mr. Whitmore's first introduction to the agricultural industry of the West, since which time he has become interested in a practical manner with several large farming undertakings. He has donated the use of one of his farms near Regina for the purpose of conducting growing tests of grain entered for exhibition at the 1932 world-wide event, to be made under the supervision of the cerealists from the federal experimental farm branch of the Department of Agriculture.

In 1905 Mr. Whitmore, with his brothers, entered the business field in Regina. From 1908 to 1912 he was a member of the Saskatchewan Legislature. He has also occupied the position of president of the Regina Board of Trade and is head of the Regina Agricultural Exhibition Association. He is a member of the directorate and on the advisory board of several large financial and commercial institutions, is on the board of the Anti-Tuberculosis League of Saskatchewan, a trustee of the Great War Veterans' Trust Fund, and chairman of the Regina Municipal Air Board.
