FLUKE IN FOOTBALL

Anti-Climax Gave Draw to Legion in Dominion Day Cup Final

Very Lucky

Soccer Enthusiasts Discuss Incident in Yesterday's Game

A much disputed penalty kick in the closing moments of the Dominion Day Football Cup final yesterday enabled Baptie to equalize for the Legion and provided a dramatic anti-climax that will be a source of much discussion in the city for the football enthusiasts.

The Legion had the advantage of the hill and early attacked. A centre from Erskine gave Baptie an open goal and he scored easily. Vink then cleared from a corner and punched away a free kick well taken by W. Murray. Jack and Skinner stopped A. Dickens. Amor missed badly from McKay's opening. Smith saved from Chenoski. Vink cleared Woodside's free but the ball was returned and the Merchants' defence had a few hectic moments before offside saved the situation. Skinner cleared Amor's centre and then Vink kicked out Woodside's shot. Smith saved Currie's free kick but Chenoski got possession and hit the upright, with Smith well beaten, for the ball to rebound into play and be cleared. Hadden was clever but Warren got offside after Baptie had made an opening. Jack stopped Amor but the ball rebounded to the outside right who ran in close to beat Smith with a left foot shot and equalize the score. Woodside took a free well and forced a corner from which Baptie headed against the upright with Vink at the other side of the goal. Vink again cleared from Jack's free. S. Dickens was clever but

British Amateur Champion

Eric Martin-Smith, 22 year old member of notable English golfing family, is new British amateur golf champion. He succeeded to title held by Bobby Jones as result of his memorable 36-hole battle recently against John G. De Forest, whom he beat by one up on last green at Westward Ho. Smith and his opponent were two of youngest golfers ever to reach final of amateur British championship.

Skinner stopped him and half-time found the teams level.

Second Half

Right from the kick-off in the second half, Merchants attacked and A. Dickens gave McKay a through pass that the inside man took full advantage of to score a beautiful goal. Woodside forced a corner and then Howe shot past. Murray gave Woodside a fine chance but the latter made a mess of it. Hadden cleared and then Jack stopped S. Dickens. Erskine and Warren combined nicely but Erskine finished weakly. Menzie blocked Baptie. A. Dickens had a chance but his shot hit Jack. Vink ran out to kick the ball off J. Murray's toe and then Jack stopped Amor. Play was slack for a time, the Merchants being satisfied with their lead and the Legion forwards being weak. Woodside at last got a drive in but it was just too high.

J. Murray was winded and play was held up for a few minutes. Baptie shot past and then Warren held on too long and Menzie blocked his drive. The Merchants forwards had a fine chance to increase their lead but they muddled it. Smith and Jack between them nearly gave a goal away but Smith managed to clear an awkwardly bouncing shot. When all were ready to leave to see the cup presented to the Merchants, H. Dickens was adjudged to have fouled inside the penalty area and Baptie equalized in the last 15 seconds. The whistle went for full time before the ball could be centred with the Legion lucky to have made a draw.

The races were followed by a tug-of-war between a team of Indians and a team of railroad men. The native boys were too powerful for the local lads and took the odd heave out of three. This was followed by a softball game of real snappy nature, which was taken by a close score by the Port Simpson boys.

A good number availed themselves of an opportunity to enjoy sea bathing on a fine sandy beach and this beach was very popular with the children. The plane of the Northern B. C. Airways was in attendance and made numerous trips during the afternoon with passengers on sight-seeing trips.

The Prince Charles left Port Simpson on the return trip at 7 p.m. arriving at Prince Rupert at 9:45. On the return trip the ship's orchestra furnished music for a very enjoyable dance.

OLD EMPRESS WINS AGAIN

Penman Race Tightened Up With Hotelmen But One Game Behind Leaders

PROTEST LODGED

Old Empress won an 11-inning struggle from Sons of Canada in the Dominion Day baseball game by a score of 7-6. As a result, the league race is considerably tightened up with but one game separating each of the teams, with the Sons still on top. A protest has been entered by Sons of Canada over a decision of Umpire Brookes in calling Roberts out in the eleventh inning when he ran inside the base-line while going to first. It will be necessary for the executive of the league to decide whether there are grounds for the protest and if there are, the game will have to be replayed.

The game was featured by heavy hitting and some loose fielding, the winners collecting 16 hits off Lambie's offerings while the losers made 11 hits. Frizzell hit a homer in the second, while Wendle collected a triple and two singles, it being the first game in which he has hit safely for the Old Empress this year. Roberts, batting for Comadina in the fifth made a two-bagger and also hit a single. Smith made a two-base clout and a single, while Johnson, Kenny, and Arseneau all connected three times for singles.

BOOTH WINS IN FOOTBALL

Score of Two to One in Dominion Day Junior Soccer

With so many of the boys on holidays or camping the teams in the Junior football game of the Dominion Day celebration yesterday were not at all representative of the Junior Football League, both teams fielding many substitutes. Borden played with only ten players throughout.

John Johnson scored for the Booth team, who held their lead at half time. Gomez went through but shot over and Bob Houston stopped several shots. Fisher defended well.

The second half was not long in progress till Leslie Wilson equalized. With Morgan he led several raids but Eby and Ferguson were safe. Gomez and DeMarco were chief aggressors for Booth. McGrelsh gave the Booth team the lead after Cameron had stopped the first shot, and Borden were unable to equalize.

Borden—Houston; Velich, Fisher; Bremner, Morgan, Erickson; W. Lee, Cameron, Wilson, Welle.

Booth—Santurbane; Eby, Ferguson; DeMarco, Gomez, McMeekin; Peterson, Lear, Johnson, Munro, McGrelsh.

Referee, J. S. Wilson, linesmen, T. Bussanich, M. Colussi.

Archie Watt, divisional master mechanic for the Canadian National Railways with headquarters in Prince George, arrived in the city from the interior on this afternoon's train.
