Nationalist Group in British Contest Will Gain by Acclamations

Indications Are That Coalition Will Have Majority of From Twenty to Thirty After Nominations on Friday

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The National government expects to get off to a flying start in the forthcoming general election. Indications are that between sixty and seventy members will have been returned by acclamation after the nominations have been received on Friday. The government expects to have a majority of between twenty and *thirty when these acclamations are all in. According to the calculations the acclamations should in-clude forty-one Conservatives, three COUNCIL National Liberals, twenty-one Laborites and one Liberal (free trade).

City Council Learns That It May Pay 40c Per Hour Here On Unemployment Relief

It was revealed during a discussion of great length at last night's meeting of the city council that the city is at liberty, if it so desires and if federal regulations are not conflicted with, to base the rate of pay on municipal unemployment relief work at 40c per hour for common labor with rates for other classes of work on a corresponding per hour, the council adopted a scale of pay to be submitted to the RAIL BOARD government for approval. This scale provides for relief work wages at about two-thirds of the regular wage scale here for labor. Unemploybeen based on a scale of $2.85 for common labor.

This was but one of many phases of unemployment relief work which the council discussed in a debate of over an hour.

Another decision was to have a special committee appointed to go into the whole problem of unem-Joyment relief work, more particularly to devise plans whereby the work should be most effectively spread out over the period of need.
