Sid Thompson Addresses Rotary Club and Tells of Difficulties of Growers

The fruit business, with special stress on the apple situation as it exists today, was the subject ofan, address given before the Rotary Club yesterday by Sid Thompson He told of the apple war going on in the Okanagan as a result of which every grower would lose money. In many cases, the freight on the apples amounted to more than the price paid for the fruit. The fruit growers were in a similar condition to the fishermen in that their product was sold for less; than it cost to produce.

Mr. Thomson told of the failure of the co-operative movement in the fruit business but said that in California there was an outstanding co-operative success in the California Fruit Growers' Exchange. It was vital to the busi ness in the south.

While the growers of the Okanagan were unable to sell their pro- Presbyterian Tea duce, there was being shipped from Seattle 300,000 boxes of apples for Europe, mostly Unitea Kingdom, and 100,000 boxes from Portland. No explanation was given Delightful Affair Yesterday Afteras to why this was done.

Considerable Damage Done to Fulton Street Premises-Vic Rodgers Being Held

Fire of suspicious origin did considerable damage last evening to taken a strong hold by the time the department was called, but the firemen soon had the blaze under control. Insurance was carried.

After the fire, the police found a paper soaked with coal oil between the studding on the ground floor, Vic Rodgers, who bought the place recently from D. Zarelli, is being held at the police station for investigation. No charge had been laid up to early this afternoon.

Rodgers is said to disclaim any knowledge as to the origin of the fire, stating that he was downtown when it broke out.

E. R. Workman, who has been on a business visit to the city and district for the past two weeks, sailed last night on the Prince Rupert for Vancouver.
