DAILY EDITION. Tuesday, Dec. 2, 1919.

All Are Subject To Furious Storms.

Sometimes we think Prince Rupert has wind storms that cannot be excelled for speed, strength and purifying power. There we seem to make a mistake. They had a storm on Saturday night in Ontario that must have been worse than our little recent breeze. They have also had storms in other parts of the country that are much worse than anything we get here. The wind so mixed things up in Detroit that twenty-four hours after the event they were still unable to find out what damage had been done, owing to the wires all being tangled. If we gave as much care to our buildings in this city as they do in Detroit we should not notice a little breeze like the one that broke some windows here recently.

Government Lottery In England Improbable.

A dispatch yesterday told of an effort being made to introduce the state lottery as a means of raising money in England. While the method has been mooted doubtless in certain influential quarters, yet it will not be accepted by the people of England. They doubtless are in financial difficulties over there, but they have not yet got to the point where an orgy of gambling is necessary in order to get the coin from the people. We are told that the bankers and the churchmen are against it, and well they may be. We look to Great Britain for our lead in a good many things. Let them lead off on state lotteries and the whole Empire would soon be gambling in the same way. It would be an excuse that some have been looking for. While we realize that everything in life is more or less of a lottery, we think the sense of insecurity which goes with gambling is bad for the nation as well as for the individual.

Coal Shortage is Very Serious.

The coal shortage is very serious and if the strike in the United States continues we shall feel the pinch even in Prince Rupert. On the prairies and in Eastern Canada they are already feeling it badly and are turning to wood fuel as a temporary substitute.

In Prince Rupert, fortunately for us, we have plenty of wood, if the coal supply should fail. The mill can supply us with practically all the firewood we can take. The woods in the neighborhood also may be raided in order to keep the fires burning. It will be difficult to freeze us out but it would be very inconvenient in weather like this to have to burn green or wet wood.

"It is with pleasure that I write to tell you of the great benefit I received from the use of your medicine 'Fruit-a-tives', made from fruit juices. After taking several boxes, I was completely relieved of these troubles and have been unusually well ever since". Miss ANNIE WARD.

ERNEST VALPEY ELECTS SPEEDY

Marvin E. Allen Gets Two Months
For Attempted Fraud.

Marvin E. Allen pleaded guilty before Judge Young in the County Court yesterday afternoon of attempting to obtain money under false pretences. He was sentenced to two months' imprisonment dating from the time of his arrest, which time will be up on December 14, 10 days being deducted for good behavior.

Ernest Valpey also appeared before His Honor and elected for speedy trial on the charge of shooting with intent to do serious bodily injury. He was released on bail until December 8, when the trial will commence. This adjournment had to be taken as one of the chief witnesses, E. Andrews, left on the Prince Rupert Sunday night for Vancouver, before he had been served with a warrant by the provincial police. In the meantime Andrews will be summoned when he arrives in the south.

COW BAY ROADWAY IS AGAIN DEBATED

The Cow Bay roadway was again the subject of considerable discussion at the council meeting last night. A recommendation for its repair from the Board of Works was read and its adoption was moved and seconded. However, on certain responsibilities being pointed out that would result from the city doing these repairs the report was again referred to the Board of Works. The roadway is not on public property and as long as the city left it alone they would incur no responsibility. This walk was originally put in by Sol. Cameron of the Westholme Lumber Co. and was not a public thoroughfare.

The correspondence between the city and the Emmerson Mills regarding light and power concessions, which was moved to be tabled by Ald. Perry on Friday night, has been laid over for a week pending the return of Ald. Perry from the interior.

Never forget to look through the classified list on Page 5.
