NOT-ADVANTAGEOUS SO FAR

The operations of the co-operative organization handling the halibut here this year have not been to the advantage of the city so far. The Alaskan port of Ketchikan seems to have been the gainer and Prince Rupert the loser.

Everyone wishes the fishermen to get high prices. They are mostly local citizens and their prosperity means the prosperity of the city. They have been very much enthused over this co-operative movement, so much so that they could not see any other side to the question and could not believe that it might possibly fail.

If the new company continues in business it is to be hoped that Prince Rupert will get a square deal and that its operations will not work to the disadvantage of the port. There seems to be no good reason why it should hurt the city, but so far it has, and that fact has made it less popular locally than it otherwise would have been.

Those not directly interested will watch with great interest the operations during the next week or two as that will be the crucial test of the ability of the new concern to hold its own.

While undoubtedly there is a great deal of sympathy expressed for the men in their effort to secure higher prices, it must be realized that the presence of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company here with a great plant, partly built by the Canadian people, has anchored the fish business in Prince Rupert and that the presence of the other company representatives here has been the means of developing the port as a fishing centre. Should the present movement succeed, the whole effort of the other concerns will have been swept away, something that it is difficult to imagine. Usually it takes years of patient toil to build up a business but when once established and carried on under wise management it is more or less of a permanency. If the movement now under way succeeds it would indicate that there is no such thing as permanence in business. In fact, the new business will be in just as precarious a position as the older ones if it becomes possible to sweep one away in a night.

Possibly the fishermen have benefitted so far from the operations of the new concern. No one can say. All we know is that some of those who have taken the checks, payment of which has been delayed a week or more, have almost been laid up by nervous prostration.

THE WONDERFUL NORTH

It was only a few years ago when Canada was looked on as a useless country, much too cold to be of any value. Later as its value began to be realized, people looked still farther north and found that possibly by adaptation even the country northward to the Arctic Circle might have a value. Travellers tell us that it is warmer in winter at the mouth of the Mackenzie than it is in Manitoba although the continuous darkness of the winter months is a handicap. Official statistics back up what the travellers say.

Possibly fifty years from now there will be considerable population at the mouth of the Mackenzie River, especially if they find mineral there that is of sufficient value to make working it remunerative. The reindeer industry is likely to become important. What other industries may develop there does not yet seem apparent but the oil supply at Fort Norman has been proved but not utilized.

Alaska was once offered to the British but refused by them because it was supposed to have no value. Now it is realized what a grievous mistake was made. Possibly the rest of the northland may yet prove as valuable as was Alaska.

Prince Rupert Boys and Girls Basketball Teams Win Handily Over Terrace In First Games

Before a crowd of over three hundred fans, Prince Rupert High School boys and girls basketball teams last night demonstrated their superiority over Terrace boys and girls, winning both games by handy margins. The score of the girls' game was 27 to 10 in favor of Prince Rupert and the boys, 28 to 10 for the home team. The games were fast and both sides enthusiastic. Terrace players were probably handicapped by the large floor. They are used to more limited space. They should be more at home tonight, however, and may be expected to give a much better account of themselves in the second group of games.

IS WINNER OF BRITISH COLUMBIA GOLF TITLE

VICTORIA, April 7.—Harold Brynjolfson of Victoria won British Columbia amateur golf championship yesterday by defeating Bob Morrison of Victoria.

Girl's Game

The girls' game started fast. Three minutes after the start, Greig fouled Patmore. Patmore missed. This was followed by shots at both baskets. Moore sunk the first field basket of the game for Terrace. Greig made the score four nothing in favor of Terrace within two minutes at left. Patmore sunk first field goal for Rupert with a beautiful loop shot. Morris tying the game four all. Boddie fouled Glass. Greig scored on rebound ending scoring for first half.

Greig opened the scoring in second quarter after a beautiful dribble down the side lines. Boddie scored the first for Rupert after dribble down centre of the floor. Morris scored the next after scrimmage under basket. Johnstone and Morris engineered flashy piece of combination which resulted in Tite scoring basket from close in.

Tite opened scoring in third quarter on pass from Patmore after a flash of combination between Johnstone and Patmore. Patmore scored. Patmore scored again on pass from Johnstone, followed by Morris scoring. Greig scored for Terrace. Glass fouled Morris. Morris scored. Score at three-quarter time was 19-10 in favor of Rupert.

Last quarter opened up by Morris fouling Glass. Glass missed. Tite scored from centre off and sunk two more in quick succession. Then Johnstone scored the last basket on throw-in from Morris.

It would be impossible to pick individual stars on the Rupert team. All turned in a good game.

Terrace girls tried hard but, unaccustomed to the large floor were unable to get into their fast stride. Rupert—Boddie, 2; Johnstone, 4; Patmore, 4; Tite, 10; Morris, 7; total, 27.

Terrace—Greig, 6; Smith, 2; Moore, 2; McLaren; Glass; Munro; total, 10.

Boys' Game

McLeod opened scoring by foul against Walters. Thomas scored on Wingham's foul. Morrison opened score for Rupert by grabbing ball from scrimmage and looped it from the side. McLeod scored on Vance's foul. After a fast bit of combination, Walters scored on Morrison's pass. Walters again scored from centre. McLeod scored first field basket on pass from Bowering, followed by Michiel scoring on Little's pass.

HANSON WINNER

Scored One Fall Over Freddie Myers In Seattle Wrestling Match Last Night

SEATTLE, April 7.—A backward body slam in the seventh round—the only fall of the match—gave Charlie Hanson the victory over Freddie Myers, the bearded Hebrew, in an eight-round wrestling match here last night. It was a strenuous affair with Hanson putting up a good deal of the cleaner fight.

In the semi-wind-up Howard Cantonwine and Stanley Pinta shared honors with one fall apiece, the former with a stepover toe hold and leg lock in the third round and the latter with a straight pin down by rolling over after Cantonwine had high thrown him with another stepover toe hold and leg scissors.

Wrestling matches for the rest of the season will be held in the Seattle arena.

- 2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Magic Baking Powder
3/4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
4 tablespoons shortening
1/2 cup milk
Tea-cubes of sugar
Raspberry juice or syrup

Mix and sift the dry ingredients. Cut the hard, cold shortening into them with a knife, using a quick, short, chopping motion or reduce the hard cold fat to tiny particles with a pastry blender or a steel-pronged fork. When the mixture resembles a very coarse meal, add the liquid, mixing quickly and lightly. Turn out the dough on a slightly floured board, pat it down lightly or roll it to a thickness of about one inch. Shape with a small cutter or cut in squares with a floured knife.

Dip the small lumps of sugar into syrup from canned or fresh raspberries... Press a lump into each biscuit... forcing it well down into the dough so that it will not run down the sides when melted.

Place the biscuits on a greased pan or baking sheet and bake in a very hot oven, 450° F., 12 to 15 minutes.

SPORT CHAT

Jackie Mitchell, 17 year old girl, recently signed as a pitcher in professional baseball, fanned Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig in a spring training exhibition game in Chattanooga between Chattanooga, Southern League, and the New York Yankees, American League. Entering the game after the Yankees had scored one run, she retired the two mighty hitters with six pitched balls. She followed by walking Tony Lazzeri and was then taken from the box. Miss Mitchell was reported to have a lame arm before going into the box.

Gar Wood, American speedboat racer, was non-committal when informed in New York that Kaye Don had bettered that in his Miss England II, at Buenos Aires. "I'll say this," Wood retorted when he was asked if he expected to take Miss America IX out, "that my boat is right out there in Indian Creek and that I'm leaving for Miami Beach Friday. We didn't run our fastest mile by any means when we set the record," he said, and chuckled. "We will see about it when we get the official time on Don's run down south."
