People are Jumpy, Also Irritable.

In a recent number of an advertising journal appears an editorial article which seems to fit the case here, so we give it in full:—

"There has been a war. The effort put forth by our people has been greater than any single word can describe.

"The country has borrowed several times as much money as there is in the country. There is not an office, shop, factory or store that has not been pulled and hauled about. Men have gone from their desks and other men have taken their places. The personnel of customers has changed. Old standards are shot to pieces. Prices have gone everywhere. Costs, policies, methods have been changed and rechanged, and with all this we have bravely kept up a pretense that nothing much has really happened.

"But we are nervous. We are still worked up. The national pulse is higher. A scientist has said that the very secretions of our bodies are different, when we are at war.

"For four years the music we have heard has been war music. The talk we have heard has been war talk. The news we have read has been battle news.

"Go to the library and get a newspaper or a magazine of 1913 and try to read it and you can't. Its tempo is too slow.

"A manufacturer oversold a few months ago is piling stock today. Another who could not produce during the fighting days finds the bars down on raw materials, and he is running his factory night and day.

"Is it any wonder people are jumpy and irritable? Since the day last November when the armistice was signed, it is safe to say that more petulant letters have been written, more impatient telegrams filed, than in the entire decade from 1904 to 1914. Names for men and things are stronger and harsher. We have grown accustomed to calling men slackers, pro-German, Bolsheviks, profiteers. A cold in the head is 'influenza.' A sneeze is a crime.

"There are such things as wounds that do not bleed, scars that do not show. There are cases of fever in the trenches of business, and shell-shock where no real shells have burst.

"Let us try to calm our own nerves as much as we can and remember that the nerves of the other fellow have been against the emery wheel. Let's get back into the amiable habit of tearing up the impulsive letter and rewriting the brusque telegram. Let's call things by gentler names.

"A little less haste in our decisions, a little less of the court-martial in our judgments, a little less do-or-die, a little more do-and-live. The world has been made a safe place to live in. Let's act as if we felt safe."

Leader of Opposition Discusses Problems.

Now that W. J. Bowser has been confirmed in the position of leader of the opposition in this province, anything he says on current topics is interesting. As reported in the Vancouver World he addressed the Conservatives of New Westminster, the following being an extract from the report:

"Mr. Bowser took up the question of the new farmer government in Ontario, and denounced class governments of all kinds. He designated the farmer government as a most dangerous form of government, and said that no government that did not have a majority was any good to a country. The farmers, he said, had no more right to run the country than any other group of men. He pointed out that in Ontario the farmers were trying to combine with labor, and while labor was trying to cut down working hours, the farmers were trying to work labor from sunrise to sunset. The only safe way in which the country could be governed, Mr. Bowser thought, was to clean up the old parties. This was not a time, he declared, for group or class government. It was no time for O. B. U., federated labor, farmer or soldier parties."

112 HARRIS ST., ST. JOHN, N. B.
"It is with pleasure that I write to tell you of the great benefit I received from the use of your medicine 'Fruit-a-lives', made from fruit juices. I was a great sufferer for many years from Nervous Headaches and Constipation. I tried everything, consulted doctors; but nothing seemed to help me until I tried 'Fruit-a-lives'.

After taking several boxes, I was completely relieved of these troubles and have been unusually well ever since". Miss ANNIE WARD.

NOVEMBER PERMITS HIGHER THAN LAST

Buildings to the Value of $13,040
Commenced During the Past Month.

During the month of November building permits were issued at the building inspector's office in the City Hall to the estimated value of $13,040. Although this did not appear very large as against $25,943 issued during the month previous, still October saw a lot of big houses going up.

October is generally recognized as a better month for building than November from weather and business standpoints, so the showing last month was very gratifying. This may be readily understood by comparison with the record book for last year where the value of buildings built that month was only $3,145.

HAZELTON

George Clothier, district mining engineer, was a visitor to Hazelton on Monday last when he inspected the Silver Standard mine and mill for the first time in two years. The development and grade of ore shown were very pleasing to the engineer.

Mrs. C. H. Sawle received the sad news on Monday last of the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary A. M. Walsh, at Regina. Mrs. Walsh was in her 65th year and was a native of Dumblane, Scotland.

The heaviest snowfall for two years fell on Wednesday last. There is now over a foot of snow on the ground and now that it is freezing again the sleighing is great.

R. E. Allen, the retiring district forester, was a visitor in town last week. He was accompanied by E. C. Manning who is taking over the district. Mr. Allen is now operating the new mill at Pitman and the first logs were cut last week.

A bridge was held at the home of Mrs. McKay last Friday afternoon. There were three tables and four prizes. The winners of the married ladies' prizes were Mrs. Newick and Mrs. Hogan, while Miss Wallace and Miss Horbury won the young ladies' prizes.
