Joe Malkewicz Beats Bob Kruse With Two Out of Three Falls—Koloff Conquers Freeberg

SEATTLE, Feb. 24—Scoring falls in the fifth and sixth of eight, scheduled ten-minute rounds last night, Joe Malkewicz took a wrestling victory from Bob Kruse in a match that was chuck full of excitement. The youthful Kruse took the first fall of the match with a wrist lock which had Malkewicz on his back before he knew what had happened in the third round. Malkewicz's superior experience and ability, however, served him well. A backward body slam evened the match for him well on in the fifth. By the same route he took the second fall and the match a few seconds after the start of the sixth round.

A special event between John Freeberg and Dan Koloff, which served as a semi wind-up to the main event, was no less exciting. It went the full five rounds and Koloff was declared the winner with one fall on a foul. In the fourth round, Freeberg lost his temper and pitched Koloff over the top rope on to his head on the boards. This was the foul. Koloff weighed 225 pounds and Freeberg, 230.

Lions and Eskimos Fail to Score in Furious Battle

VANCOUVER, Feb. 24—In still another thrilling Pacific Coast League hockey game here last night, Vancouver Lions battled 70 minutes with Seattle Eskimos but both failed to register a tally. It was a furiously fast match. Both goalies made numerous saves. As a result, Vancouver maintains its one point lead in the standing over the Eskimos.

The standing of the clubs to date is as follows:	Vancouver	13	8	8	48	44	34
Seattle	12	7	9	49	38	33
Portland	8	12	8	39	44	24

SPORT CHAT

What is apparently the first sympathetic cricket strike took effect recently in Queensland, Australia, when three members of a team selected were reported "unavailable." F. Brew, G. Bourne and Duncan announced their inability to play owing to the suspension of seven other players. Among them are F. J. Gough, the regular Queensland captain, F. C. Thompson, Queensland's finest batsman, Benstead, Thurlow and Amos, the stock bowlers.

With Alkali Lake battling Quesnel in the finals, Central Interior Hockey League is winding up a successful initial season in which four teams set out to battle for the title. The league season finished with Quesnel topping the standings with five wins and one defeat with Alkali Lake second having four wins and two losses. Prince George followed with three victories and three defeats, while Williams Lake fell in all six starts. Alkali Lake took the measure of Prince George in the first play-off affair. Foster of Quesnel headed the scoring list. Plans are being made to add Clinton, Vanderhoof and the Sugar Cane Indians to the league next season, also to gain recognition for provincial play-off rights.

ELKS WIN BILLIARDS

James Andrews of Grotto Beat W. E. Willisroft in Final Postponed Game

James Andrews, Grotto, defeated W. E. Willisroft, Elks, 25 to 239 last night in final postponed game of last Friday's Billiard League fixture but it was not enough to pull the Grotto out of the hole and the Lodge Men won the fixture by an aggregate score of 1211 to 1148.

The league standing for the second half of the season:	Games	Total	Ave.
Canadian Legion	9	10416	1157

Scored Three to Two Victory Over Ballard at Seattle Sunday in Overtime Hockey Match

SEATTLE, Feb. 24—Winnipeg C. P. R.'s amateur hockey team, defeated Ballard in a wild and woolly game here Sunday night. Three minutes in the overtime period, the Canadians scored the winning goal. Ballard scored first in the regular periods, and then Winnipeg equalized, the second pair of goals coming in the same order.

MAY TAKE UP HOCKEY

Spokane, Edmonton and Oakland Mentioned as Pacific Coast Franchise Holders

SPOKANE, Feb. 24—There is a very strong possibility that Spokane may be represented next winter in the Pacific Coast Hockey League's loop. A new auditorium is proposed for the Inland Empire City and it may be made to incorporate an ice arena. The public of Spokane is said to be strong for ice hockey and, it is believed, would support it well. There is also talk of Edmonton, Alta., and Oakland, Cal., taking out franchises in the league but, like Spokane, it is early yet to say definitely what may be done.

At present there are but three teams in the league—Vancouver, Seattle and Portland.
