Housing Problem Is a Mystery.

The cause for the lack of houses is a mystery. In Prince Rupert it is caused by a noticeable increase in the population; but why is there a shortage of houses in practically every city in Canada, United States and Great Britain.

There can have been no increase in population generally for the war was a considerable check upon increase. Men were losing their lives every day and the normal rate of increase was lessened.

It has been suggested that the scarcity is caused by the payment of higher wages and the desire of the people who formerly lived under poor conditions to live in their own homes or to rent good flats. The use of a cabin or a half share in a cottage is no longer sufficient to the man who is earning good money and who is beginning to see life from a new viewpoint.

Ireland Remains In the Limelight.

Ireland is still in the eye of the world. She is the subject of conversation, of speculation, and of wonder. The British Government, if it is to settle the Irish question, has on its hands the biggest problem that has been tackled for many a day. There is Ireland and Ireland. The north and the south are irreconcilable.

Very soon the Lloyd George Government will be heard from in regard to proposed legislation. That legislation will undoubtedly have to be radical if it is to satisfy the south.

One satisfactory phase of a settlement should be the saving of money to England and Scotland. Ireland has always been a bill of expense. The smaller island never paid her share in the partnership. Possibly with the change the country will have to be self sustaining.

The War is Not Yet Won.

According to press despatches received yesterday the war is not yet won. Germany refuses to sign a preliminary treaty because the United States Government will not fulfil its part of the pact. Also there is talk of the ex-Kaiser returning to the Fatherland and kicking up a dust.

The German situation, it is to be hoped, will be dealt with in a firm manner. The difficulty is that the Supreme Council is slow to act because it has to be supported in every move by all the powers represented. It is as bad as having business done by a parliament or by a city council as compared with a business manager.

SUFFERED DAY AND NIGHT

The Tortures of Dyspepsia Relieved By "Fruit-a-lives"

LITTLE BRAS D'OR, C. B.
"I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches and did not sleep well at night. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-lives'. In a week, the Constipation was corrected and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous". — ROBERT NEWTON.
