ORANGE LODGE CARDS-DANCE

Large Crowd in Attendance Last Night at Delightful Party in Metropole Hall

A delightful bridge and whist party and dance was put on by the Loyal Orange Lodge in the Metropole Hall last night, a crowd of over two hundred persons being in attendance at the affair. A great deal of time and effort had been spent in the arrangement of decorations which proved one of the pretty features of the party.

There were 20 tables of whist and 10 tables of bridge. Mrs. J. Ratchford and Miss L. Jones, playing as a gentleman, were prize winners in whist, while Mrs. G. Hanley and W. D. Vance took the first prizes in bridge.

After cards, delicious refreshments were served to two sittings. Dancing followed until 3 a.m. with music by the Premier Orchestra and Mrs. J. S. Black.

Alex McNeill was chairman of the committee in charge of the party. Alex Macdonald presided at the door.

Robert Ward, who has been on a brief business trip to Ketchikan, returned to the city on the ss. Princess Norah yesterday afternoon.
