

UPSET IN BADMINTON

Frank Russell and Caroline Mitchell Eliminated By C. J. Norrington and Mrs. Parlow

The outstanding game so far in the city open tournament being conducted under the auspices of the I. O. D. E. Badminton Club was that last night in which C. J. Norrington and Mrs. A. E. Parlow defeated Frank Russell and Miss Caroline Mitchell by a score of 15-11, 15-6 in the semi-final of the mixed doubles. It was the first time that Russell and Miss Mitchell had been beaten since they teamed up three or four years ago. Naturally, Norrington and Mrs. Parlow were much elated and now enter the final contest of winning the city title.

Another interesting game last night was that in which Sheldford Darton and Mrs. H. L. Shadwell beat Ronald Allen and Miss B. Edgecombe, also in a mixed doubles semi-final, 15-1, 7-15, 15-10.

Complete results last night were as follows:

Ladies' Singles, Semi-Final
Mrs. H. L. Shadwell beat Mrs. J. H. Horton, 11-0, 11-0.

Ladies' Doubles, Semi-Final

SARPOLIS DEFEATED

Giant Ebcoe His Conqueror in Seattle Wrestling Match

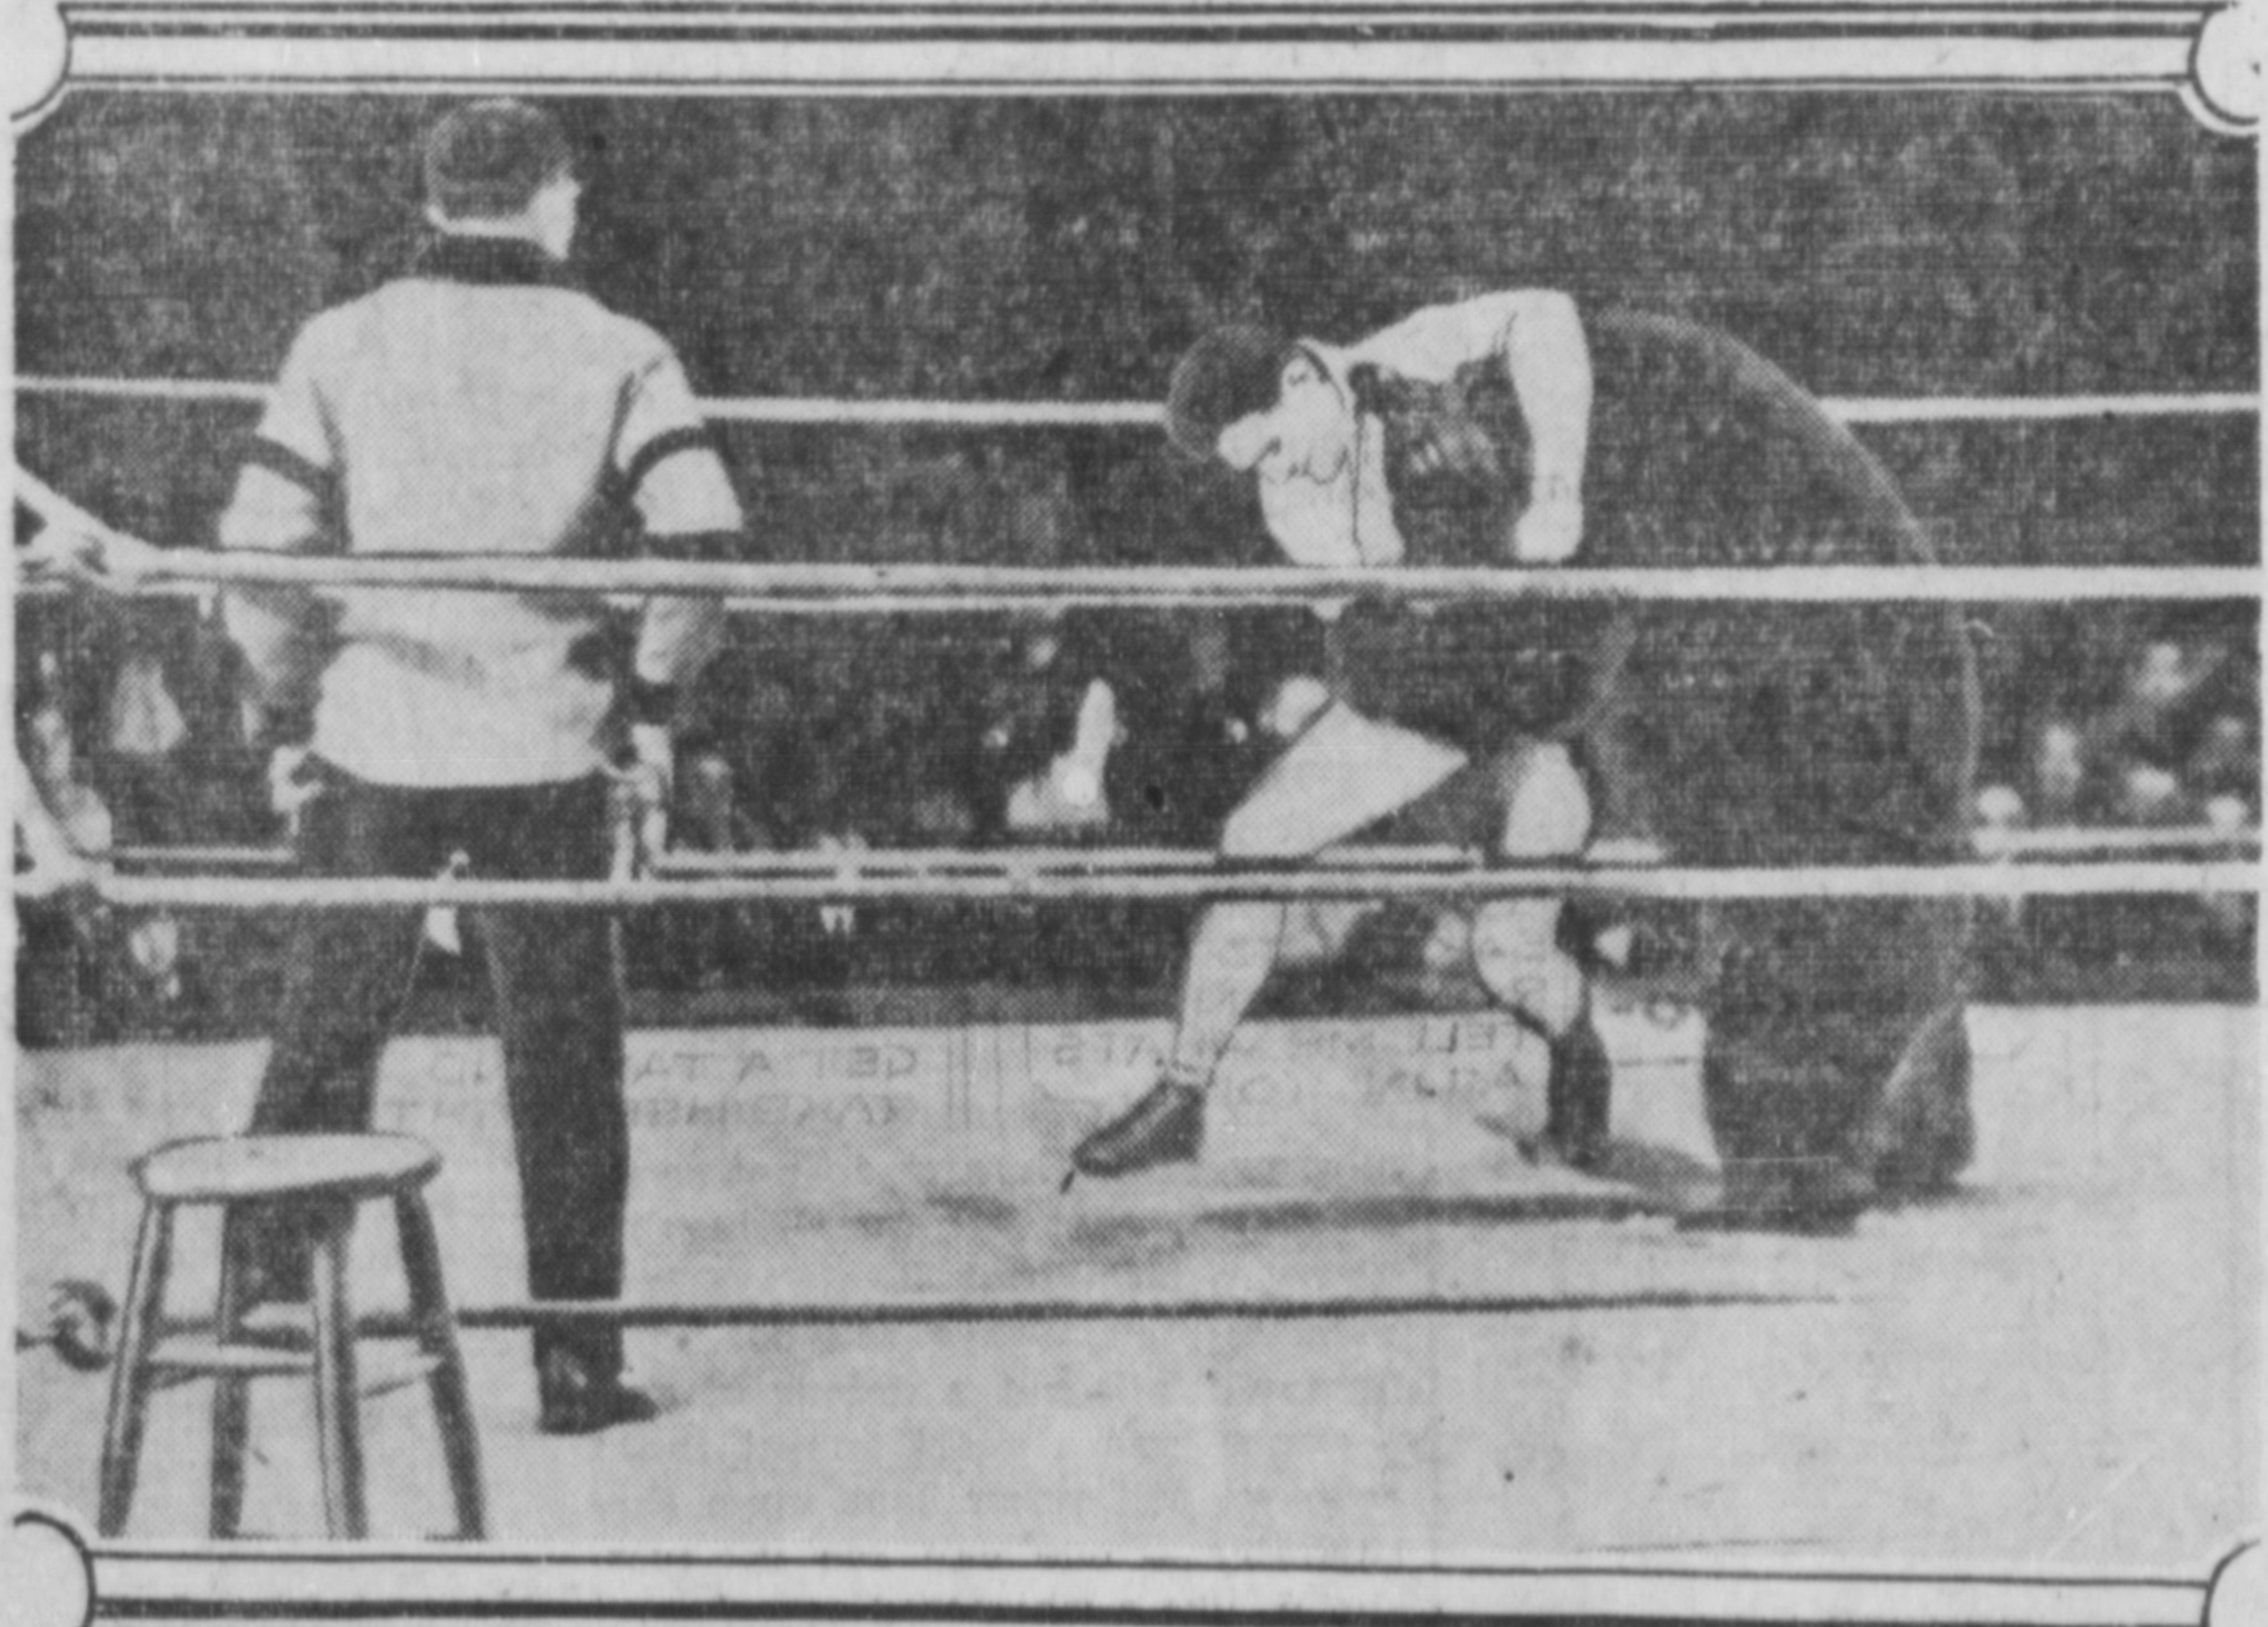

SEATTLE, Jan. 27.—By virtue largely of his sheer strength, John Ebcoe of Seattle, won over Dr. Karl Sarpolis of Cleveland in the main event of a wrestling card here last night. The match went three rounds when Ebcoe got his second of three falls. The result of the match was somewhat of a surprise but Ebcoe was much too strong for the clever Sarpolis.

The giant Slav took his first fall in the first round when he spinned out of a body scissors on top of Sarpolis, pinning the latter to the mat. It was a clean fall.

Although Ebcoe carried the battle to Sarpolis in the second round and had the doctor almost groggy, the latter continually kicked himself out of reverse head locks and finally put Ebcoe over with a flying scissors.

Sarpolis continued his tactics of kicking himself out of Ebcoe's holds in the third round. Ebcoe won the match when Sarpolis was unable to come back under a 20 count after Ebcoe had knocked him practically cold outside of the ropes.

In the semi-final, the experienced and clever Bob Kruze won a five-round match from Stanley Pinto by taking the only fall in the fourth round after a series of reverse head locks and wrist locks. Pinto, however, made a good showing.

Seattle wrestling fans were treated to a thrill, recently, when Dr. Karl Sarpolis, noted heavyweight wrestler, pitted his skill against that of a huge black bear. Sarpolis didn't do as well against John Ebcoe last night.

Hack Wilson has confided in friends that he will demand a $40,000 salary to rap out home runs for the Chicago Cubs in the 1931 season. The pudgy centerfielder, who crashed out 56 homers last year to dethrone Babe Ruth as the home run king of the majors, received $22,500 last year but he believed he was worth at least half the salary the Bambino is reported to receive for the same act with the New York Yanks. President William Veck of the Cubs hasn't grown very excited about the matter as yet but probably will attempt to arbitrate around the $30,000 mark.

Morte Craig Says Climate in Mediterranean Much Like That in Prince Rupert

Morte Craig, writing from Genoa, says: "Never let anyone string you again in believing that butter melts in winter on the Riviera. I see little or no difference from the climate in Prince Rupert. Certainly January is dark cold and gloomy in Marsailles and in Genoa today there is a sleet storm."
Mr. Craig is travelling on the motorship Cellina, stopping at most points of interest and meeting many people. He writes interestingly in a semi-philosophic way and Prince Rupert people who know him will have an opportunity of reading extracts from some of his letters in the Daily News.
