THE PULL OF THE CLASSIFIED PAGE IS VERY STRONG AS MANY KNOW

Those who wish to reach a very large number of readers at very small cost cannot do better than try classified advertising.

For those who have odd articles to sell, who wish to rent, buy or sell houses or any other kind of real estate, who wish to find lost property or to secure domestic help, there is scarcely any other method than to reach people through the classified column.

But there are others who might use this method of publicity. People in business in a small way who have things to sell or their services to dispose of get good results from the classified advertisements.

The pull of the classified page is strong. Those who have not tried it could not do better than give this method of publicity a trial or ask those who have already tried it. The rate is two cents a word or six times for the price of four. By the month the rate is one cent a word.
