PRINCE RUPERT - BRITISH COLUMBIA

Published Every Afternoon, Except Sunday, by Prince Rupert Daily News, Limited, Third Avenu

H. F. PULLEN - - - Managing-Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
City delivery, by mail or cartier, yearly period, paid in advance	-
For lesser periods, paid in advance, per month
By mail to all parts of Northern and Central British Columbia, paid in advance for yearly period
By mail to all other parts of British Columbia, the British Em-
By mail to all other countries, per year
by man to an other countries, per year
ADVERTISING RATES
Transient display advertising, per inch, per insertion

Classified advertising, per insertion, per word Local readers, per insertion, per line Legal notices, each insertion, per agate line Contract rates on application. Editor and Reporters' Telephone Advertising and Circulation Telephone

DAILY EDITION

Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations

Wednesday, July 22, 1931

MRS. BUTCHART'S WORK

Victoria people have publicly acknowledged the splendid work Mrs. R. P. Butchart is doing for the country by Shanghai to Hankow by marines allowing visitors in any number from all over the world to visit her beautiful gardens at Brentwood. It is one of Hankow: They carried about five the beauty spots of the island. It is the one place outside Victoria visited by all tourists. Victoria cashes in on it to range Brownies, and three of four the extent of many thousands of dollars annually and it is a special boon to those who cater to the tourist trade. The Native Sons and Daughters of B. C. made no mistake when they awarded her the medal.

Usually work is what people try to avoid but just now they were on duty but clean their it is the one thing they desire.

THE BEAUHARNOIS ODOR

The word Beauharnois is being telegraphed to all parts natured and did not mind the slams of the country and the name is beginning to have a very went back as far as 1812 in our disdisagreeable odor. Not only were part of the profits of the putes. company diverted to political purposes but individuals made much more than a legitimate gain therefrom, ac- told us all to keep on deck near the cording to the reports which come from the nation's ca-

It is to be hoped that the committee will keep at work tected by the armor. His orders until everything is laid bare in connection with the con- seemed unnecessary because all cern and its manipulation.

Apparently the farmers feel just as badly about the marketing of their product as do the fishermen. Both find it difficult to get along just now and the rest of the community is in the same jackpot.

METHODS HAVE CHANGED

(Edmonton Journal)

The Vegreville Observer, in recalling a by-election that was held in that constituency during the summer of 1906, dining room took refuge on the notes that it then had the first of the discussions with the moor. Journal that have lasted for twenty-five years. It is impressed by the fact that this newspaper "used more vig- were 'Cap' and 'Brownie.' The latorous language in those days than it ventures to use now." of avoirdupois, and a boastful Liberals were called "pettifogging politicians" and "ir- tongue. The rest of the guards were responsible demagogues."

If these are typical examples of the terms employed at who was enjoying himself in the that stage in the Journal's history, it has no apologies to bath tub. At this time we were make for the change in character of its language since passing a town where the Red flag then. It cannot see that by resorting to them it would be anything of this when suddenly ... helping any cause that it champions. Nor does it believe crack! Crack! The pood man in that any large proportion of its readers would approve of the tub must have been greatly a return to the slangwhanging methods that were at one embarrassed. He immediately jumptime commonplace in political controversy. Most news- ed into his underwear, seized his papers have in recent years concluded that mere abuse of "we were all on deck and it did those with whom they disagreed did not serve any good not take us long to look for a safe purpose. The Observer itself has proceeded on that theory. spot. Most of our company quickly

In reading the extracts that are published on this page lay flat on the deck behind the from the files of the London Times of a century ago, one must be struck by the contrast between the violence of the two of them jump up. Brownie yellanguage of the editor of that day and that used by his pre- led, come on guys, here's some sent successor. But this does not mean that the latter is more fun. Whereupon he ran to the any less vigorous in the expression of his opinions. There are some who can never distinguish between violence and vigor. But there really is a difference.

The city treasurer reports that so far taxes are coming tridges, which were falling on the in well, so it is clear that some people have money today. If floor like rain and still hot. Then I the city taxes are paid, the municipality will be able to crept into the captain's cabin where carry on without calling in outside aid to manage its af- soon all were assembled. In a few fairs. That's some comfort.

WE ARE OFFERING:

For Cash at the Rate of 50c Per Ton

Alberta Lump, $13.50, for cash, $13.00 Alberta Egg, $12.50, for cash, $12.00 Pembina Egg, $12.50, for cash, $12.00 HYDE TRANSFER—PHONE 580

PHONE 580

SHOT AND SHELL ON

Red Bandits Bombard River Ships eBaring Canadian and Other Passengers

BOY TELLS STORY OF TRIP

JENSHOW, China, July 22:- How to elude bandits and Communists this locality." along the battle-torn shores of the 40 Upper Yangtze River was discov-02 ered recently by a Canadian lad who 25 journeyed from Toronto to Western 15 China. The following article de- the Prince George. scribing his experiences was written for The Canadian Press by Julius Paul Jolliffe, 13-year old son of Rev. C. J. P. and Mrs. Jolliffe of the United Church of Canada Mission:

"We arrived at the river port of Hankow. Officials of the boat company told Captain Micklow that a river steamer which arrived the day before reported it had been fired on. Our steamer was owned by an American company and therefore was guarded on her passage from from the American gun-boat.

"A new guard came on board at rifles, two Lewis guns, four long-Thompsons. Each guard also had a .45 revolver and some riot guns for close range. Besides this the captain's cabin was protected with armor-plate for the passengers' refuge if need be.

"The guards did nothing while guns and smoke their pipes. When not on watch they would borrow the captain's gramaphone or have a snooze. They were quite good-

"The next morning the captain bridge, because firing was expected and he wanted us to be ready to go to his cabin, where we would be prolooked so peaceful around us. Nothing happened that morning, however, and at noon the captain decided it would be quite safe for us to take lunch in the saloon, which was just below the bridge.

We were busy eating when we heard something suddenly go 'Pop!' Twas a bullet from the Reds before anybody could say Jack Robinson. Our guards had all become attentive and gave the Reds such a reply

"The next morning the guards on deck or sleeping, except for one bridge with me at his heels to give the Reds a reply. I stumbled over some guns-which made Brownie rather angry, and he made a few ejaculations I will not repeat. I amused myself by picking up carminutes the captain came, saying, 'It is all over now but we will have it again in a little while, so stay where you are.' With that he walked over to his bureau, which was built in the wall, and took out two black revolvers and two boxes of cartridges. The guards had ordered coffee, but the boy who brought it saw they were firing at the time and thought it was for us. When we passed the spot they looked for their coffee.

"That night we went over a very shallow spot on which we could hear the boat scraping the bottom. Next day we heard another boat just behind us got stuck at this place. The Reds gave them a reception they had not expected. In order to get away they had to throw overboard half of their cargo, and the Reds sent them a letter asking them to surrender, which of course they did Italian Consul not do. They were rescued by a British gunboat. "The next morning we passed Temple Hill, which is known as the Reds' headquarters. Here we had Leaves Jasper Park Lodge For Paanother lively time; it was a cannon they fired at us this time. The captain, who was on the bridge, said he smelt its powder. He said the shell the bridge. As for the rest of the trip it was uneventful.

"I have heard that the Chinese government is doing its best to put down the Communist activities in

P. Docker. log scaler from Ocean of the diplomatic chief. alls arrived in the city today on

Visiting West

JASPER, July 22:- The Conte R.

Contessa Di Villanova.

Great Speed In Railway Work

cific Coast Today

LONDON, July 22:-An important part of the scheme for reconstructing Paddington Station was begun and completed in three hours of hustle. Between one and had passed a couple of yards above Di Villanova of Ottawa, Italian con- four o'clock in the morning a gang sul general to Canada, left today of 100 men removed sections of old over Canadian National Railways tracks and crossing points, laid new for the Pacific Coast after a day at tracks, demolished portions of the Jasper Park Lodge where he greeted wall of No. 8 platform, dug trenches more than a dozen Italian members for the new platform wall, removed of the lodge staff at an official re- the material, lowered new sections ception, which was tendered them of concrete platform into position, in a charming gesture on the part moved large quantities of material into position. The work is claimed The Consul is accompanied by the to be one of the largest operations lever concluded in three hours.

Here is a never-failing form of relief from sciatic pain:

Take Aspirin tablets and you'll avoid needless suffering from sciatica - lumbago - and similar excruciating pains. They do relieve; they don't do any harm. Just make sure it is genuine.

A CHOHED HAT TRADE MARK REG.

Made in Canada

He offers you stronger tires-greater values

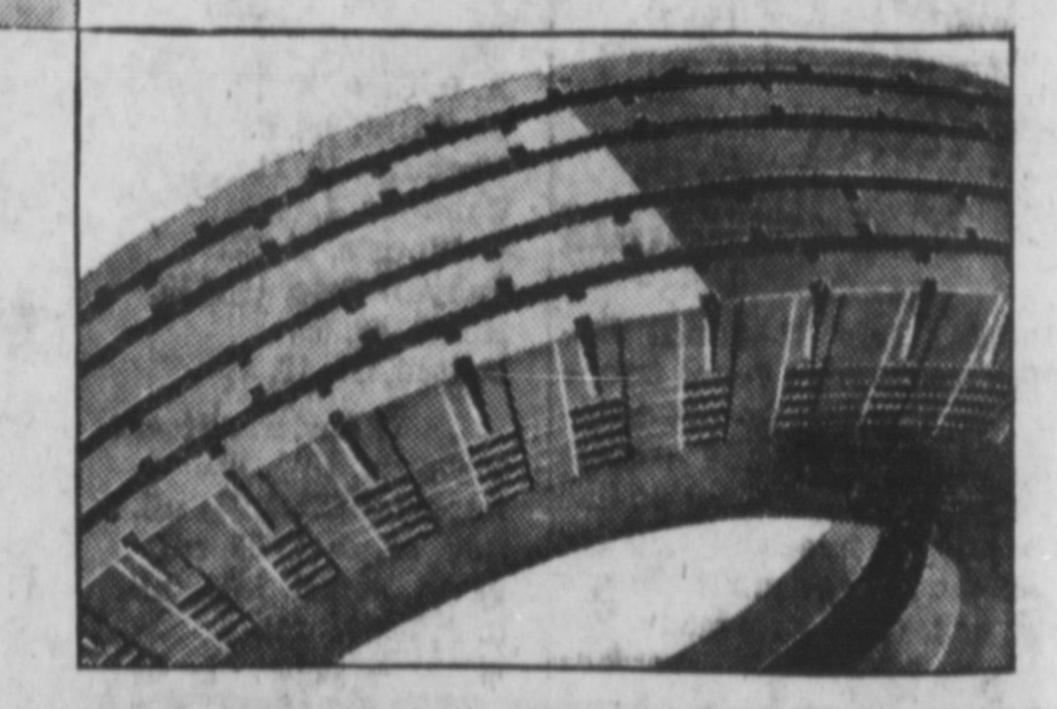

GAMBLING with weak, worn-down tires may result in a serious accident . . . may even cost you your life.

If the tread of your tires won't hold on slippery pavements . . . if you are running the risk of a blowout at high speeds . . . it's time for you to see the Dominion Tire Dealer near you.

He offers you Dominion Royals which have proved in rigorous tests to be unexcelled for strength. You need this extra strength to give you peace of mind when you drive your car hard and fast. You need this extra strength to free you from tire trouble and to give maximum mileage. You want this extra value.

The Dominion Tire Dealer also offers you the greatest tire values in the world . . . for Dominion Tires and Inner Tubes are priced no higher than tires of inferior strength. Buy Dominion quality!

Another Reason Why THE BIG SWING IS TO DONINES ES

Strength