BEAUTEQUEST BRIEFS

Elks, Gyros and Retail Merchants, Ahoy!

Captain Paul Armour reports the good ship ROTARY sailing before a stiff breeze with all hands on deck, and nothing but a lagging crew will bring disaster to the race they have entered.

Paul says no landlubbers have been signed on his crew as Commander Munroe's policy of "We race to win" must not be deviated from. With full sail set, everyone of his crew at their post, their ship will not stop until Los Angeles is reached and their candidate landed to represent Prince Rupert—and, added the genial captain, the $50 prize money given by the Exhibition Board for the sale of the largest number of tickets will be tucked away in the hand-bag of the Rotary candidate.

N.B. This is the first interview with any of the Beautequest committees. Somebody had to be first and you know how irrepresible Cap Armour is, but watch this space for interviews from Charlie Mills, John Bulger and Fred Stephens.

PEOPLE OF GOOD TYPE

Deputy Minister of Agriculture Is Impressed With Peace

VICTORIA, Aug. 28.—J. B. Munro, deputy minister of agriculture, who recently returned from a trip to the Peace River country, said one thing that struck him was the superior type of settlers in the district. He found a people of high moral standards, ready to deny themselves in order to get on, with no complaint about the hardships they might endure, and rather expecting and willing to bear more in time to come with the steadfast hope that they will win out in the end. The beauty of the country with its weaving crops of grain in the area between Rolla and Pouce Coupe impressed him greatly.

An English critic says American women have nothing to occupy time. Has he never heard of times?

ARABELA CIGARS

5¢ each

by far the greatest value

A LOT of cigars must improve their quality if they are to compete for smokers' favour with Arabella... buy one to try, you'll buy the pocket pack of five next time... the aroma and freshness are sealed in.
