OPEN FISHING AND SALMON PROTECTION

The unscrupulous use of drag seines is destroying a great many creeks very rapidly.

(e) The price of cannery and all fishing licenses should be greatly reduced.

(f) The close season should be extended, beginning with an increase of 12 hours the coming season.

(g) Returned soldiers should be given preference in all cases.

(h) Legislation should be introduced enacting drastic penalties where licensees are fishing out streams, and these licenses should be taken away.

(i) The patrol system should be multiplied, and an elaborate program for the preservation of our spawning grounds introduced.

"Of course, I should have mentioned first that No. 2 District should be separated from the others, with a resident inspector who lives here all the time.

"Let us examine some of the reasons that are advanced against throwing the fisheries open.

Open Fisheries.

"One, is that it is impossible to protect and conserve the fisheries. We have cited to us the case of the Fraser River where the fishery is nearly extinct, but no honest man will blame that on to gill net fishing. It was the traps on Puget Sound and the avarice of American cannerymen there that destroyed the Fraser River fisheries.

"We are also cited the Alaska fisheries which show signs of depletion. That is being caused by the greedy shortsightedness of Alaskan cannerymen in fishing out streams—the same as I happen to know some of our cannerymen are doing.

"Another reason given by the cannerymen is that the fisheries would find its way into the hands of Orientals and that returned soldiers would be eliminated. This is a shallow camouflage. It is, however, edifying to find the cannerymen developing a violent affection for white men, after favoring the Orientals for some forty years.

"If Japanese are excluded from purse and drag seine net fishing and gradually eliminated from gill net fishing, and returned soldiers given preference in all cases, where can it be explained that returned soldiers are to be eliminated. The fact is that the cannerymen are trying to get behind the returned soldier and get him to bolster up their monopoly.

Faith in Business.

"I was in the cannery business myself for several years, and I would be very willing to go into it again and invest every penny I could scrape up, and to enter into competition with all the world. I don't think I could make any stranger argument than that, as it shows I have every faith in the business and would be willing to risk any available means I have in open competition.

"I would like to point out that under the present system the fisheries of this district are parcelled out in Vancouver by and to southern interests. We are not even privileged to know what and where licenses are granted unless we pick it up from the outside. I suggest that we northern people don't want to interfere in the affairs of Nos. 1 and 3 districts. What we do want to do is to run our own district and be permitted to engage in these vast fisheries that lie all around us.

Only Nickerson.

"What I want to know is whether public opinion is behind me in my endeavor to establish open fishing? I think we should treat this question quite aside from party and from politics and show that we are all united on the question. When I tell the inspectors down below that there is a profound public opinion on this question they say 'Oh, no, it's only George Nickerson.' While I think that Mr. Nickerson is entitled to every credit for the fight he has put up for open fisheries, still I believe the vast majority of the public hereabouts are of the same mind. I have been driving this into the head of the Minister and department officials at Ottawa, and from telegrams I have received I am convinced they are disposed to do the right thing. But all the great and powerful interests of southern cannery owners are moving heaven and earth to defeat my proposals. The tremendous ramifications of this monopoly are almost unbelievable. It is now up to the residents of this country to show how they stand, or forever after hold their peace.

Permanent Industry.

"The opening of the fisheries would, I am convinced, prove a great source of prosperity to Prince Rupert. Living as we do in the centre of one of the greatest fisheries in the world, I believe if we pursued an enlightened, free policy with our fisheries, with at the same time iron-bound regulations for conservation and propagation, we could have a great permanent industry which would develop our north country more than any of us can conceive. We must not underestimate the tremendous forces we have against us, and if we win we shall all have to pull whole-heartedly together.

"Yours truly,
"C. W. PECK."

TAKE MEDICINE IN CAPSULE FORM

Gives Quicker Action—The Ideal Method for Home Treatment.

Why medicines in capsule form are best was recently explained by a medical authority as follows: "The object of taking medicines is to get quick results and also make the taking as easy as possible. The capsule form does this. The patient does not revolt at the taste as he does with the drugs contained. The capsule also goes down the throat without inconvenience. In the stomach the gelatine coating dissolves almost immediately and the medicines start work promptly. The capsule is far superior to the hard pill which, especially if it has been exposed to the air, often passes through the system without being dissolved."

A striking illustration of the effectiveness of capsule form medicine is given by Grip Fix, the remedy that relieves a cold in a night. This preparation contains Quinine, Salol, Caffein Citrate, Casarea and Camphor Phenobromate, the drugs usually used by physicians for colds or Grippe. In capsule form they provide a reliable home treatment for colds which gives wonderfully quick results, just what is needed.

Have a box of Grip Fix in the house at all seasons of the year. Get Reid's Grip Fix as there is no substitute so effective or quick. On sale at all druggists at 35 cents per box.

HOME-MADE BREAD

Home bread-making reduces the high cost of living by lessening the amount of expensive meats required to supply the necessary nourishment to the body. The increased nutritious value of bread made in the home with should be sufficient incentive to the thoughtful housewife to give this important food item the attention to which it is justly entitled. Bread made with Royal Yeast will keep fresh and moist longer than that made with any other.

ROYAL YEAST CAKES
