CHINESE CONSUL WRITES TO CITY

His Letter Elicits Considerable Discussion at Council Meeting Last Night.

"POLICE COMMISSION IS DEAD," SAYS ALD. PERRY

A letter from Hon. Kobiang Yih, Chinese Consul for British Columbia, brought forth much discussion at last night's council meeting. The letter objected very strongly to the discrimination that would be shown against the Chinese race by taking an individual Chinese census with a view to finding out undesirables. The consul asked that the council reconsider it as it was most unusual and probably not within municipal powers.

This suggestion was made three weeks ago by Ald. Perry following the many convictions against Orientals in the police court in contravention of the Drug Act. The matter had been left with Mayor McClymont to take up with the police commission. So far, it appears, no action has been taken.

Sticks to Guns.
 "I still stand behind my suggestion," said Ald. Perry, "and I further suggest that when the census is taken that it be sent to Hon. Kobiang Yih to show him what class of countrymen he has in Prince Rupert. I mean no discrimination but I maintain that this city has a right to take a census of conditions prevailing, whether it please the Chinese or any other authorities. The Chinese in this town are a poor bunch and there are some that should be deported. I would be prepared to pick out some fit subjects for deportation. To find out the law-breakers will not hurt the law-abiding ones."

Ald. McRae said that the police commission should be given time to act. They had not had a meeting since this had come up and really it was a matter for them to deal with.

Dead Anyway.
 "There is too much dilly-dallying with matters like this," replied Ald. Perry, "and our police commission is dead anyway."

Finally it was moved by Ald. Kirkpatrick, seconded by Ald. Perry, that the matter be taken up with the immigration authorities and the city solicitor for information of the council pending some action being taken by the police commission.

ERNEST VALPEY GETS 9 MONTHS

Found Guilty by Judge Young of Shooting With Intent.

PECK SAID ACCUSED GOOD ARMY CHARACTER

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock Ernest Valpey was found guilty of shooting with intent to do grievous bodily injury by Judge Young and was sentenced to nine months with hard labor at Okalla Farm.

In summing up the evidence the judge said that he could not agree with L. W. Patmore, counsel for the accused, when he argued that he had shot merely to break the lock off the door. In the first place he had not shot the lock but had shot above it. It seems he had never attempted to open the door by force or otherwise before shooting. He did not believe that it would have been necessary for the accused to shoot to gain entrance.

Provocation.

It was very unfortunate for the boy that he should get tangled up in an affair like this but he doubtless had had provocation. On the other hand he might consider himself fortunate that the girl, Roberts, and Andrews had left the room for he might have killed someone. He was half drunk and had shot recklessly with a motive. This motive would be caused by finding the girl who had promised to marry him with another man.

He could do nothing but find the accused guilty but asked Mr. Patmore if he knew anything as to his character. Mr. Patmore said that, under ordinary circumstances, Valpey would not kill a flea. He had only shot to give the inmates a scare. As to his character, Col. Peck, under whom he had served at the front, would testify and also the local police.

Character Good.
 W. E. Fisher, crown prosecutor,

What are Peps

Peps provide a new treatment for coughs, colds and lung troubles. They are little tablets made up from Pine extracts and medicinal essences. When put into the mouth these medicinal ingredients turn into healing vapors, which are breathed down direct to the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes. The Peps treatment is direct. Swallowing cough mixtures into the stomach, to cure ailments and disorders in throat and lungs, is indirect. Peps are revolutionizing the treatment of colds and their price is within the reach of all. All dealers, 50c. box. Send 1c. stamp for FREE TRIAL PACKAGE.

stated that he had interviewed Col. Peck and he had stated that Valpey had served under him for some time and his character had been of the best.

The accused had nothing to say why sentence should not be passed so Judge Young gave his finding.
