Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other sub-ject of public interest, but let-ters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded cor-respondent has no place in modern journalism.
Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a mat-ter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Let-ters of a caustic character must have the signature ap-pended for publication.
Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be al-lowed in the ordinary rules of debate.
