LEADERS BEATEN

Athletics and Senators Drop Games In American League—Robins Move Up in National.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Philadelphia Athletics and Washington Senators, American League pace setters, both lost games yesterday, the former dropping a close decision to the St. Louis Browns while the latter were vanquished by the Detroit Tigers. Incidentally, the St. Louis Browns, by virtue of their win, moved out of the cellar, leaving that position to the Chicago White Sox, who were beaten by the New York Yankees. Babe Ruth made his fifteenth home run of the season to help boost the Yankees' score for the day.

Brooklyn Robins finally moved definitely into the first division of the National League by taking both ends of a double-header from the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Boston Braves, dividing honors in a double-header with the Cincinnati Reds, dropped into fifth place behind the Robins. St. Louis Cardinals, who have been suffering a good many reverses of late, defeated the Phillies in both games of a double-header.

Yesterday's scores:

American League

Detroit 7, Washington 5.
New York 10, Chicago 3.
Boston 7, Cleveland 2.
St. Louis 6, Philadelphia 15.

National League

Brooklyn 5-6, Pittsburgh 3-4.
Cincinnati 8-6, Boston 5-11.
St. Louis 4-4, Philadelphia 2-2.
New York 2-10, Chicago 0-14.

Corporal punishment, it is stated, doesn't improve a schoolboy's intelligence. But it makes him smart.

One week from tomorrow night in the new Cleveland Municipal Stadium in a city that never before has seen two heavyweights joust for the richest title of them all, Max Schmelling, the German, and Willie Stribling, from Macon, Ga., in the South, will battle 15 rounds for the heavyweight championship. So far, preparation for the struggle has been almost a community secret, but between now and the night of July 3 the ballyhoo drums will roll, the fighters will work themselves into the customary state of "physical perfection" and the faithful in more or less quantity, will present themselves with money in their fists at the gates of the stately structure on the shores of Lake Erie. So far the box office reports that about $100,000 is in the cash registers already and orders for $200,000 worth of tickets are on file. The Ohio Garden, a subsidiary of the New York Madison Square Garden Corporation, has high hopes of a gate of $600,000. Arrangements are being made at the stadium, which will house its first major attraction July 3, to seat 92,000 as a maximum. The ticket prices are scaled from $5.49 to a top of $25. Fifteen hundred ushers are drilling daily in expectation of a mammoth turnout.

Into the conventional atmosphere of British sailing woman has infused a new element. By its attractive air of gay inconsequence it has won over the older habitués. Having recovered from the shock of seeing something new, startlingly new to most of them, they greet the innovation with smiles of amusement, instead of with lifted eyebrows. Although they have been a long time about it, London's weekend sailors have at last discovered the attractions of the Solent as a cruising ground and are resorting there in steadily-increasing numbers. All sorts of craft skim about, many of them manned by damsels and youths, dressed in jerseys and shorts, who are enjoying a weekend's respite from the monotony of London. This free and easy costume seems the regulation wear for them.

Man in the Moon

In spite of the hard times there are just as many spots as ever on the front of the blue serge vests.

This is the month when a number of young men take life service with a new boss.

Old Gentleman: "You've evidently seen better days. Have you no friends?"

Tramp: "No, sir. I used to be a football referee."

Judge: "Six months on the rock pile. Have you nothing to say?"

Prisoner: "That's crushing news, your honor."

"Who made this disgraceful mess?"

"The new office boy, sir."

"Oh, he did, did he! What's his name?"

"Gunn, sir."

"Well, go and fire him at once."

Jimmy: "Hi, Tommy, your father's looking for you."

Tommy: "I know I've just given him the slip."

"And I just heard him say he was going to give you the slipper."

ELKS MAKE INITIAL WIN OF SEASON

Close and Exciting Game Taken By Lodgemen With 4-3 Score Last Evening

Nick Chenoski Hurls Fine Game

Largest Crowd of Season on Hand to Witness Old Empress Team in Initial Contest

After starting off with three runs in the second inning off Bill Mitchell's pitching, the Old Empress Hotel team, formerly the Millionaires, were held scoreless by Nick Chenoski's fine work for the Elks and lost a close decision in last night's senior league baseball by a 4-3 score. The game was close all the way and the decision was in doubt until the last man was out.

Bill Harold, in his first game of the season, picked out the first ball Nelson put over the plate and lined one out between second and third which went for a home run as the fielders could not get to it. Harold connected for a single also in four times up.

The Old Empress team, strengthened with Arseneau and Menzie from the Elks and Kenny from the Sons of Canada, and with a new infielder, Eldridge, looked a lot better, and will give both the other teams a hard run for it from now on.

Old Empress looked dangerous in the first inning when Kenny and Hibbard both walked. Arseneau went out when bunted the third strike foul and then Kenny was caught napping off second. Wendle lifted a fly out to Chenoski in left.

Harold, first man up for the Elks, cracked out a lucky home run. Farquhar struck out. A Mitchell fled out to Arseneau. W. Mitchell walked and Chenoski fled out to Wendle.

Old Empress did all their scoring in the second. Menzie walked. Eldridge singled and Menzie made a fine slide at third completely fooling Farquhar who should have had him easily. Nelson tripled down the first base line. Smith singled and Nelson scored. Redman singled Smith going to third. Chenoski was called to the rescue and came through splendidly. He struck out Kenny and Hibbard and then tossed out Arseneau at first.

Elks added one more run in the fourth. W. Mitchell walked. Chenoski lined to Kenny who dropped the ball but threw him out. G. Mitchell fled out to Redman. Stephens got a lucky hit that went off the end of Menzie's glove and Mitchell scored. Stephens going to third on the play. Skinner struck out to end the inning.

They added the two runs necessary to win in the fifth. Stone struck out. Harold singled and stole second. Farquhar was out at first and Harold went to third. A. Mitchell was safe when Arseneau dropped his fly which he should have had easily. W. Mitchell lined one between first and second which both basemen went after and Kenny got but Nelson was slow in covering the sack and the runner was safe. A. Mitchell scoring. Chenoski was hit by a pitched ball and G. Mitchell struck out.

Old Empress threatened in the last inning after two were out. Arseneau singled. Wendle was safe when Stephens dropped Farquhar's throw and Arseneau took third. Menzie made the third out when he fanned.

Elks tangle with Native Sons in tonight's fixture.

A DARK DEED

MIDNIGHT . . . and you feel distressingly empty. So hie away to the dark fastness of the kitchen and raid the refrigerator. Cheese sandwiches . . . cold cuts of meat . . . and, to top off the repast in royal fashion, The Champagne of Ginger Ales—Canada Dry.

It delights you always to find this fine old ginger ale frothing on the ice, for it is the pleasantest ginger ale of all to drink just before you turn in. Bubbles wink like stars in its frosted gold depths . . . its aroma refreshes you. As you sip it, enjoying its wonderful flavour, it rounds out the day and helps send you off to bed thoroughly satisfied and ready for sleep.

Canada Dry now comes in two sizes—the familiar 11-ounce bottle and the new five-glass magnum. Keep a few emerald bottles of Canada Dry always cooling in the refrigerator. You'll have enough on hand for every occasion if you buy the convenient cartons of six or twelve bottles.

Poor appetite and low spirits

Doctor orders GUINNESS

"A patient with poor appetite and spirits whom I advised to drink Guinness with his meals for a fortnight found his appetite and spirits improved in a marked manner. He now drinks it regularly. He enjoys his Guinness, enjoys his food, enjoys his life. He finds, too, on those nights when he cannot get off to sleep easily, that it acts like a soothing balm."

M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.

This letter, printed by special permission, is one of thousands recently received from the Medical Profession emphasizing the value of Guinness.
