Daughter of Local People Married In KAYSER

A wedding of interest took place on Thursday. June 25, at St. George's Church, Port Haney, when Evelyn Jean, only daughter of Mr. and I Mrs. C. C. Marshall o fPrince Rupert, became the bride of Roge Norman Harris, eldest son of Mr and Mrs. H. C. N. Harris of Port Haney, and grandson of Mr. and James Feiron of Baldock, Herts, England. The service was performed by Rev. H. Pearson, assisted by Rev. C. V. Venables, and the church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by members of the Women's Guild. The bride, charmingly attired in white chiffon trimmed with chantilly lace, and wearing a veil heid in place by a flet of orange blosoms, entered the church to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, accompanied by J. Allen of Vancouver. The wedding music was played by Mrs. E. Jones, and the bride was carrying a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. Miss Agnes Allen of Vancouver, Miss Mary Harris, sister of the groom, and Miss Barbara Harris, cousin, were bridesmaids, and were dressed in pastel shades of yellow, mauve and green respectively, with picture hats to match. They carried boulquets of flowers in contrasting shades and wore pearl necklets, the gifts of the groom. Geoffrey F. Harris supported his brother as best man: During the signing of the register, Mrs. A. E. Bend sang "O Promise Me."

After the ceremony, a reception and dance were held in the Masonic Hall, the table being decorated with pink antirrhinums, and Song Yee, city; O. Nelson, But 3- centred with a three-tier wedding cake, a gift to the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Harris left later for an extended motor tour.
