Tragic? Yes—but that isn't all. The young husband left his wife almost penniless. He had been so healthy and vigorous, he thoughtlessly put off securing life insurance until too late.

UNVEIL HONOR ROLL TO MEN

Sons of England Banquet Was Impressive Event—Aided By Ladies.

A large and well-attended banquet was held in the Knights of Pythias Hall under the auspices of the Sons of England last night. The object of the gathering was to welcome home the returned soldiers belonging to the order and also to unveil an honor roll of those who had served.

The toast to the ladies was responded to by Percy Tinker in a very good speech. He quoted the common rhyme of the trenches, "We like you for your beauty, we love you for your virtue, but we love you for your socks."

After his speech Canon Rix unveiled the honor roll, while the "Dead March in Saul" was expressively played by Will Edmunds and W. Vaughan Davies. The toast to the forces was responded to by Jos. Hutchinson and T. Silversides.

W. C. Orchard favored the guests with songs and Myhill-Jones assisted in the musical program. Will Edmunds gave some solos on the cello and W. Vaughan Davies was accompanist.

The General Committee included R. H. Shockley, Myhill-Jones and C. Westaway. The ladies' committee that supplied and looked after the refreshments consisted of Mrs. Geo. Leek, Mrs. Kemp, Mrs. A. H. Bailey, Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Frank Morris.

D. J. Hancock is in town today en route to Alice Arm, returning from a business trip to Seattle.

Col. S. P. McMordie is back from Victoria after having attended a meeting of the B. C. Soldiers' Commission.
