

Tomoto's Tides
 Tuesday, Feb. 3, 1931
 High a.m. 20.4 ft.
 Low p.m. 32.0 ft.
 m. 6.5 ft.
 n. 0.6 ft.

The Daily News

Of Special Interest
 Have you read the classified advertising page in this paper today? If not, now is the time.

NORTHERN AND CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEWSPAPER

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1931

PRICE FIVE CENTS

GOING AHEAD WITH FARM COMPANY

TWO YOUTHS ARE KILLED IN LETHBRIDGE PLANE CRASH

Canadian Ranchers to Be Helped Turning to Mixed Growing Lines

New Concern, With Capitalization of $5,000,000 to Make Headquarters in Montreal—Will be Known as Dominion Agricultural Credit Co. Ltd.

OTTAWA, Feb. 2:—The head office of the company that is being organized to finance farmers desirous of going into mixed farming will be in Montreal. The capitalization of $5,000,000 will be divided into fifty thousand shares of $100 each. The company will be known as the Dominion Agricultural Credit Co. Ltd. It is being formed especially for the benefit of prairie grain farmers.

ECKMANN HELD UP

Search Pilot Forced Down by Fog in Johnstone Straits While on Way to Seattle

Pilot Ansel Eckmann, on his return flight to Seattle after spending the past few weeks here and at Ketchikan conducting an aerial search for the plane and party of Pilot Robin Renahan, was forced down by fog in Johnstone Straits Saturday, according to word received here. It is understood that he would resume his southbound flight Sunday, weather permitting.

Inquiries were received in the city yesterday as to whether anything had been seen or heard of Eckmann here. He left Ketchikan for the south last Thursday and was held up by bad weather.

VICTORIA, Feb. 2.—Pilot Ansel Eckman arrived here yesterday after having been weather and fog bound on his flight from Ketchikan. He spent Saturday on a small island in Johnstone Straits.

MISTOOK GASOLINE

Seward Breakwater Engineer Dies As a Result of Burns Sustained in Lighting Furnace

SEWARD, ALASKA, Feb. 2.—E. G. Wallace, Alaska road commission engineer in charge of the construction of the Seward breakwater, died yesterday from burns received when he mistook gasoline for kerosene while lighting a furnace fire in the morning. He is survived by a widow and a small daughter.

Chief Supervisor of Fisheries Here For Brief Period

Major J. A. Motherwell, chief supervisor of fisheries for this coast, arrived in the city on Saturday from Vancouver aboard the departmental steamer Malaspina. After conferring here for a few hours with James Boyd, supervisor for District No. 2, Major Motherwell sailed on his return south.

VANCOUVER WHEAT

VANCOUVER, Feb. 2:—Wheat was quoted at 57½c on the local exchange today.

240 MILES PER HOUR

Capt. Malcolm Campbell Is Showing Some Speed on Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Feb. 2:—Capt. Malcolm Campbell, British automobile racer, today attained an unofficial speed record of approximately 240 miles an hour on a practice run.

Although Campbell's time exceeded the record of 231 miles set by the late Sir Henry Seagrave on the same course, it was not officially timed and was made only in one direction.

Commandant Kerr Ministerial Head

Named President of Association This Morning in Succession to Dean J. B. Gibson

Commandant William Kerr of the Salvation Army was this morning elected chairman of the Prince Rupert Ministerial Association in succession to Very Rev. James B. Gibson, dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral.

Business at today's meeting was largely of a general nature. It was arranged that Rev. Alfred Wilson, Rev. Mr. McKenzie of the Pentecostal Mission and Commandant William Kerr of the Salvation Army should take services in the Prince Rupert General Hospital on the remaining Sundays of this month.

REGISTRAR SUCCUMBS

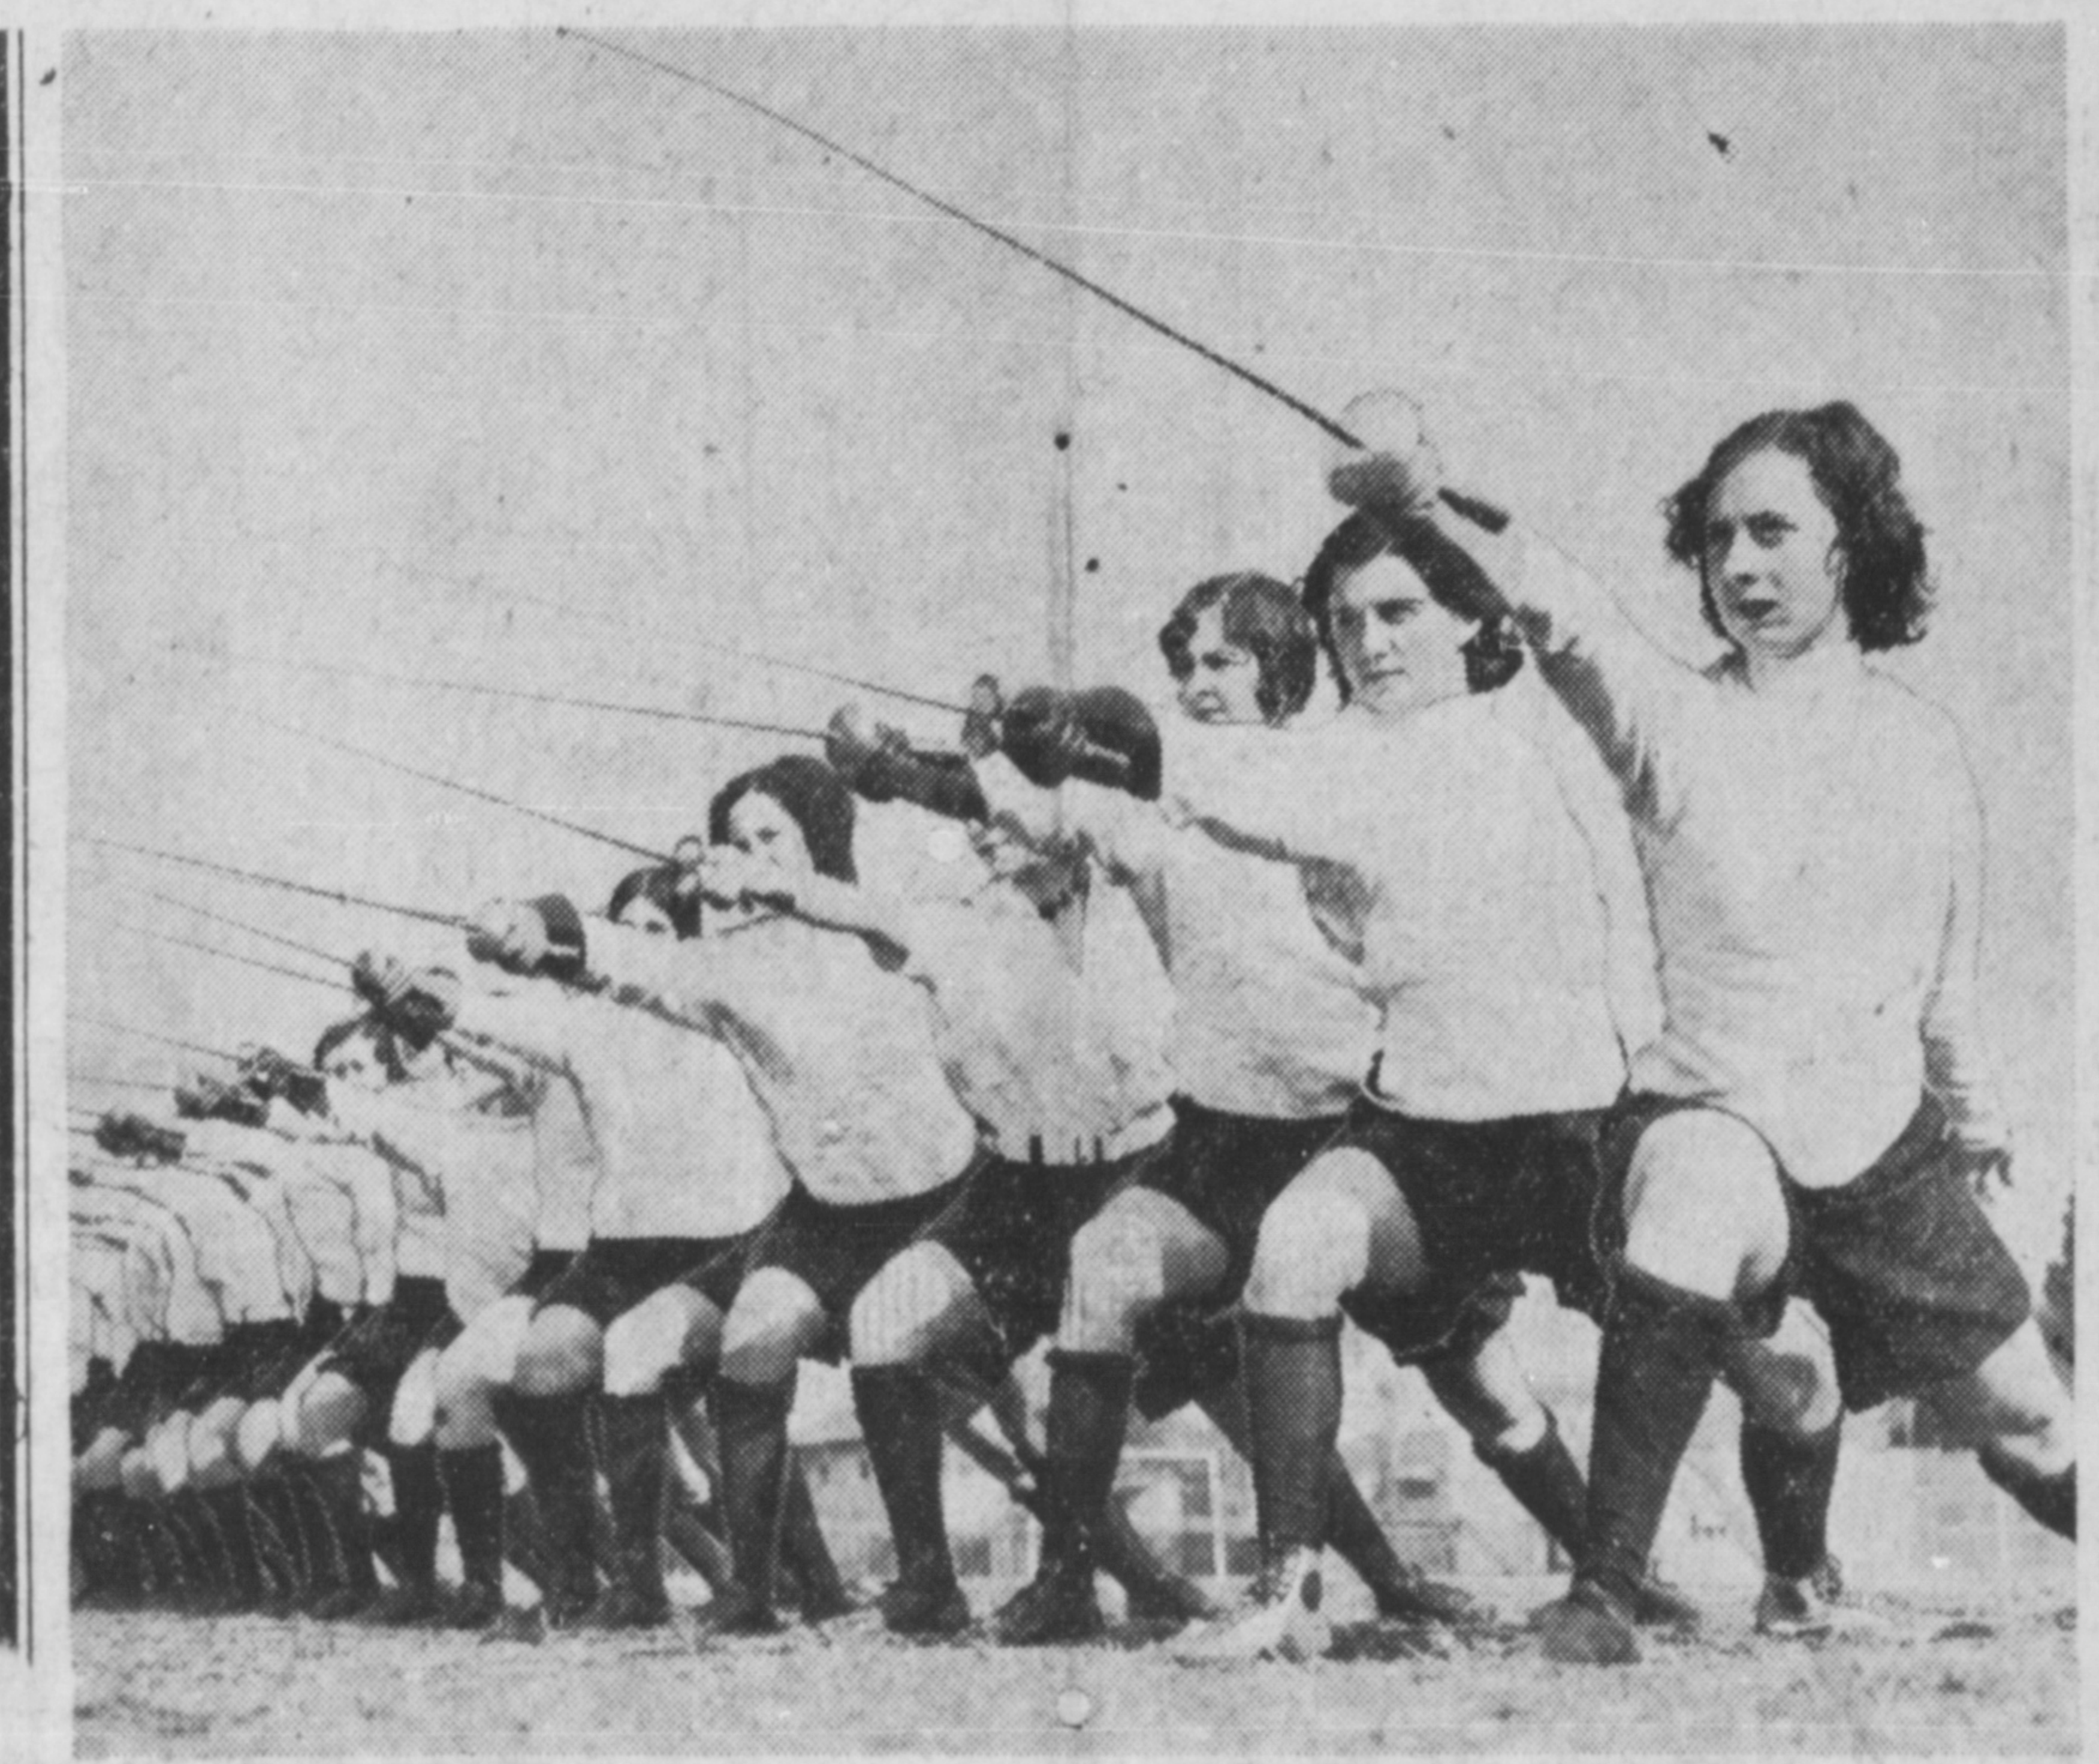

Edward Robert Cameron K.C. Passed Away in Ottawa Last Night

OTTAWA, Feb. 2:—Edward Robert Cameron K.C., L.L.D., aged 74, for many years registrar of the Supreme Court of Canada, died last night.

Seattle Building Is Going Ahead

SEATTLE, Feb. 2:—The business depression has evidently had no adverse effect upon building in Seattle. Permits for January this year provided for the erection of 128 buildings and houses as against 77 in January of 1930.

How Pretty California Co-eds Lose Weight

With the annual inter-class feminine fencing championship at stake, pretty co-eds of the University of Southern California, Los Angeles, recently began intensive training under tutelage of their celebrated master of arms, Harry J. Uyttenhove. Girls work out in open air, using training as means towards low weight.

Grandma Little Died on Sunday at Terrace; Had Reached Fine Old Age of Ninety-Six Years

TERRACE, Feb. 2:—The death of Mrs. Ellen Little, mother of George Little, well known lumberman of Terrace, occurred here at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Little, whose maiden name was Ellen Lawrence, was born in Aberdeen, Scotland, in 1835 and was almost 96 years of age.

BUTLER IS PERSISTENT

American General Says He Can Back Up Allegations Made Against Mussolini

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 2:—Major General Smedley Butler of the United States Marines, in military prison in Virginia, is now preparing to assume his defence against charges laid against him following remarks made by Butler derogatory to Premier Mussolini of Italy.

HAVANA WAS DISAPPOINTED

Princes Were There Yesterday But Did Not Come Ashore From Their Steamer

HAVANA, Feb. 2:—The Prince of Wales and Prince George, en route to South America, were here yesterday during the stay of the liner Oropesa. The royal visitors, however, did not come ashore, much to the disappointment of large crowds who had assembled in the hope of seeing them. The next stop of the princes will be at Jamaica.

TWELVE LOAVES FOR DOLLAR NEW PRICE OF BREAD IN CITY

Bread went on sale in Prince Rupert bakeries today, at 12 loaves for a dollar, raising bread selling at 10c a loaf straight. The reduction in price was announced by bakers of the city at the week-end. It follows recent reductions in the price of flour.

SHIPS HAVE COLLISION

Arabia Maru and Tako Maru Crash at Entrance of Tokio Harbor—Former Vessel Beached

TOKIO, Feb. 2.—Passengers of the Japanese liner Arabia Maru, from Vancouver, B.C., for Tokio, were successfully transferred to the steamer Tako Maru after the two steamers had collided at the entrance to Tokio Bay yesterday afternoon.

There were seventeen passengers aboard the Arabia Maru. The crew of eighty-seven remained on board and the steamer was beached in shallow water. She had a hole on one side above the waterline and one hatch leaking.

JANUARY WEATHER

Much Rain and Little Sunshine Yet It Was Very Mild With No Frost Registered

As far as sunshine and rain were concerned, January, 1931 set a poor record for some years past. There was 14.08 inches of rain during the month and only 2.9 hours of sunshine. From the temperature standpoint, however, it was a very good month. The thermometer did not go below freezing point once and went up as high as 57 above. Last year in January, there was 74.5 hours of sunshine and 5.98 inches of precipitation while the thermometer descended to 12 above zero and no higher than 44.

Following are weather figures for January, 1931:
 Precipitation, 14.08 inches.
 Sunshine, 2.9 hours.
 High temperature, 57 on Jan. 31.
 Low temperature, 33 on Jan. 6.
 Mean temperature, 42.9.
 High barometer, 30.23 on Jan. 17.
 Low barometer, 28.88, on Jan. 22.

Young Pilot and His Passenger Came Down As Game Was Played

Disaster in Alberta Town Yesterday Was Witnessed by Three Thousand Baseball Fans—Doctor's and Alderman's Son Involved

LETHBRIDGE, Feb. 2:—Hurling earthward from a height of between 300 and 500 feet in full view of three thousand persons watching a baseball game yesterday, a light Moth airplane crashed and carried Ivan Thompson, aged 19, its pilot, and Donald McKenzie, 18, a passenger, to their deaths. The pilot was the son of Major Thompson, acting physician to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and the passenger was the son of Ald. W. L. McKenzie of this city. Thompson was recently awarded a commercial flying licence.

COURT IN SESSION

Twelve Cases of Litigation and Thirteen Naturalization Applications Considered

County Court was in regular monthly session before Judge F. McE. Young this morning for setting of February cases and hearing of naturalization applications. There were 12 cases on the list and of these three were set down for hearing this month while dates for the nine other hearings have yet to be set. Thirteen applications for naturalization, practically all from Scandinavians, were approved.

The list for the month is as follows:
 La Salle Extension vs. Archibald Sinclair, E. F. Jones for plaintiff, L. S. McGill for defendant, $90, February 4.
 Prince Rupert Towing Co. vs. Bradbury et al. Williams, Manson, Gonzales and Taylor for plaintiff, Patmore & Fulton for defendant, $548.59, stands.
 Vergil S. Moore vs. J. H. Thomas, Williams, Manson, Gonzales & Taylor for plaintiff, defendant in person, $227, stands for one month.
 Rowe's Plumbing, Sheet Metal Works et al vs. Andy Anderson, W. E. Fisher for plaintiff, defendant in person, $67.75, stands.
 Angus McArthur vs. Chatham Sound Fishing & Packing Co., W. E. Fisher for plaintiff, Patmore & Fulton for defendant, $350, stands.
 L. Huboff vs. K. E. Veregin et al, Williams, Manson, Gonzales & Taylor for plaintiff, Patmore & Fulton for defendant, $95, stands.
 Joseph Greer vs. George J. Dawes et al, Patmore & Fulton for plaintiff, Williams, Manson, Gonzales & Taylor for defendant, $91, stands.
 J. J. Hepson vs. Mayou Gold Copper Mining Co. Ltd., Williams, Manson, Gonzales & Taylor for plaintiff, Whiteside, Wilson & White for defendant, (Continued on Page 3)

CONTINUE CAMPAIGN

No Let-Up in Civil Disobedience Movement by Indian Nationalists

ALLAHABAD, India, Feb. 2:—Mahatma Gandhi and other All-India Nationalist leaders, who were released from prison last week, are resolute in their determination to continue the civil disobedience campaign and it is likely that, before many days ensue, a number of them will find themselves back in prison again.

They will not treat with the British government until all political prisoners have been released, the Nationalists declare.

Smooth Flight To Las Palmas

First Lap of DO-X Flight Proved Thrilling to All on Board Huge Flying Boat

LAS PALMAS, Canary Islands, Feb. 2:—Capt. Fritz Hammer, commander of the German flying boat DO-X, on his arrival here Saturday afternoon from Lisbon on the first leg on a flight across the Atlantic Ocean, reported that the 55-ton aircraft had had a smooth journey which, however, proved thrilling to both passengers and crew of the ship.

FIND OLD TIME BAR

Saloon and Distillery Uncarried by Federal Officers—City Police-men on Carpet

SEATTLE, Feb. 2:—Six Seattle policemen were put on the carpet today before Chief Forbes following the discovery in a raid by federal officers at the week-end of a regular old-time saloon and distillery on two floors of a downtown apartment.

Federal agents, in their raid, found a bar crowded with customers and manned with several bartenders. On the next floor above was discovered an elaborately equipped distillery.

The six police officers claim to have known nothing about such a place being in operation.

JOHN D. IS RETICENT

Aged Oil Magnate Declines to Discuss Eighteenth Amendment or Unemployment

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 2:—Asked on Saturday as to his views with respect to the Wickersham report on the Eighteenth Amendment and the unemployment situation, John D. Rockefeller, aged oil magnate, refused to enter into a discussion on either matter.

"We must have faith," he remarked, as he turned away for his daily round of golf.