OVERTIME NECESSARY

Three National League Hockey Games Have to Play Extra Sessions

MONTREAL, March 11—The Chicago Black Hawks fell victims to the fast skating Canadiens in an inter-sectional National Hockey League battle here last night, the Frenchmen winning two to one.

Three other games were forced into overtime. At Boston, the Bruins and Toronto Maple Leafs played a three-goal draw after Toronto had led three to one at the end of the second period.

New York Rangers defeated Detroit Falcons three to two in overtime to consolidate themselves in third place in the American division and get within one point of the second place Chicago Black Hawks.

At Ottawa, the Senators defeated the long-suffering Philadelphia Quakers five to three in overtime. The Quakers had a three to nothing lead at the end of the first period but Ottawa plugged along, tied it up in the third and scored twice in the extra session.
