HOMES AND GARDENS

At the risk of tiring readers, we must refer once more to the improvement made throughout the city in the matter of homes and gardens. In most unexpected places may be seen excellent attempts at original gardening and especially on the rocky lots that at one time were discarded as useless for building purposes. These lots offer a great opportunity for picturesque effects and are considered by many as far superior in opportunity to the flat lots that many people choose.

In Victoria there are rocks almost everywhere and years ago they were looked upon as something standing in the way of the city's progress. Then came a few people who showed how wonderful gardens could be made among them and how they could be made to add to the beauty of the place. The result was that rock lots were in great demand and would often fetch higher prices than level lots.

Prince Rupert is built on hills and valleys. It is very picturesque and if the residents follow out their present plan of beautifying the gardens, the city will steadily improve in appearance.

While it is a great advantage to have a number of spacious gardens and beautiful homes, it is the pretty little cottages, the tiny ornamental gardens and the small green lawns that make the real beauty of the place. To the workingmen who take a pride in their gardens as well as in their work lies the credit for making the city what it is. In a few years Prince Rupert should earn the title of "Prince Rupert the Beautiful."

GET MEN EMPLOYED

The way to deal with the present situation is to get the men employed. The way to get them employed is for the federal government to take the lead and initiate public works of a suitable nature.

The government is already taking steps to deal with the farming situation on the prairies. As a former resident of Calgary, Premier Bennett is familiar with conditions in the drought area and can sympathize with the people in their need. He is not as familiar with conditions in this province and cannot so easily enter into our problems. We must therefore draw it to his attention the more forcibly and insist that something be done. What is the use of being a part of the confederacy if the federal government does not help in time of need.

UNEMPLOYED PRESS FOR GOVERNMENT ACTION TO RELIEVE THE SITUATION

urged the necessity for the government opening up more construction camps on the new highway. At the present rate of progress each man will have to wait five or six months between shifts for his share of work on the road.

Just as the meeting was adjourned it was noticed that Alderman Macdonald and Alderman Rudderham were outside. They were immediately invited in. Both aldermen addressed the meeting and explained that the mayor and city council were fully in sympathy with the objects of the meeting and the necessities of the situation, and that they were doing everything possible to persuade the governments at Ottawa and Victoria to institute steps to relieve the situation. The city itself had done more than its fair share in the past and in fact was at present in considerable financial difficulties owing to the continued drain on their resources. It was now however, agreed that the matter was of such a national character that it was beyond the power of municipalities to cope with and was for the government to deal with.

Notice to Transient Unemployed
The committee of the unemployed in session after last night's meeting decided that it was in the interests of all concerned to publish a runner to the report of the mass meeting to the effect that there is no use in unemployed men coming to Prince Rupert in the hope of obtaining either employment or relief. The city has gone its full limit and absolutely no relief is being given out to single men.

Chairman of Unemployed.

Slush Fund in Connection With New Mayor Alleged — Works Department Officials Asked To Resign

SEATTLE, July 16.—The City Hall is the centre of seething rumors following the fast-moving events which have just culminated in the election of Robert Harlin to succeed the deposed Mayor Frank Edwards. Even the new mayor is not clear and some of the aldermen are calling for an investigation into an alleged slush fund in connection with Harlin's elevation.

Mayor Harlin called yesterday for the immediate resignation of all officials of the public works department of the city. Dan A. Boyle and William B. Severin, superintendents of streets and water respectively, immediately resigned.

Appointment of Eber W. Babkir, who served in France and who is prominent in America Legion affairs, as private secretary to the new mayor was announced yesterday.

EFFORT TO GET TRADE FOR PORT

Special Committee to Deal With Australian Lumber Situation Under Chamber

In view of the clause in the new Australian treaty providing for a five dollar rebate in the duty on lumber from Canada going to that country the chamber of commerce executive yesterday afternoon decided to appoint a special committee to look after the interests of Prince Rupert in connection therewith.

The question was introduced by G. W. Nickerson, who spoke of the steamship subsidy which had been granted several years ago for the Australian trade but which had not produced the results expected as it was found unprofitable to operate under it. Possibly this subsidy might be renewed and, if it were, Prince Rupert should try to be included in its scope.

Vice-president Pillsbury will appoint the special committee.
