Province of Local Road

The following letter from S. C. to the interior of Central British interest of all who may see it. Columbia.

I have always credited The Vancouver Daily Province with bein broadminded in its policies, this to me (and others in the north) looks like another instance of the selfishness of the south and Vancouver in particular, and I sincerely hops you will be good enough to let us have a little publicity when the occasion occurs, as it has done through the Premier having stated that this highway was one of the projects to be included in connection with the government's programme to relieve unemployment.

"I might state for your information that the people of Prince Ru pert have been practically marooned on Kaien Island for over twenty years, and surely we entitled to some roadwork in this section of the province.

"Trusting that you will correct your omission in not mentioni the Prince Rupert Highway.

CASEY GETS CONTRACT TO HAUL GRAVEL

Beats Out Four Competitors In Moving Sand and Gravel For Exhibition Board

Last night the fair board let the contract for delivering and spreading approximately 125 yards of sand, gravel and other material for filling and levelling at the exhibition grounds in preparation for the annual fair this year, to the George Week-End Casey Company.

The material is being supplied by the city from their gravel pits. The tenders received from local
