PREMIERS QUARREL

Differences Between Bennett and Tolmie Are Delaying Peace River Outlet

VANCOUVER, Feb. 9.—Co-operative action by the Dominion and British Columbia governments towards providing a rail outlet for the Peace River is being hampered by a feud between Premier Bennett and Premier Tolmie, it is said here. The two government leaders are hardly on speaking terms, according to well informed Conservatives.

In the general election campaign last summer, Premier Bennett pledged himself to immediate action on the outlet question. Six months has elapsed and nothing has been done although British Columbia is pressing for action.

If the views of Premier Bennett and Premier Tolmie could be brought together, the whole problem might be solved and the construction brought under way this coming summer. There is ample time for the two premiers to get together if they would only bury the hatchet.

T. C. Wilding returned to the city on yesterday afternoon's train from Kamloops where he spent ten days, visiting with Mrs. Wilding and son.

count Duncannan in the peerage. He sits in the House of Lords as Baron Poseny.

In 1921, he became chairman of the Sal Paulo Railway and vice-chairman of Debeers Consolidated Mines.

The Earl of Bessborough married in 1912 to Robert Fitzmaurice, the only daughter of Neufville of Paris. They have a son—Viscount Duncannan, born 1913; and a daughter, Lady Bessborough, born in 1918.

The Bessborough title goes to the Seventeenth Century family name being derived from John Posenby of Cumberland.

The Earl was a third grade general staff officer in 1915 and at the end of the war, was major of special staff. He holds Russian order of St. Anne, the class Legion of Honor, the St. Maurice and St. Lazarus, the Order of the Redeemer, Greece and the Order of Leopold of Belgium.

The date of the arrival in Canada of the new Governor General, yet definitely known but it is at an early date although not in time for the opening of Parliament.
