From the results of the Labor Day track meet, sponsored by the Trades NEW YORK, Sept. 9 .- Following and Labor Council Monday, mem- a conference with officials of bers of the Spartan Athletic Club; the National and American Lea feel that they fully justified their gues and of the clubs which may organization this spring. From a be concerned, Judge Kenesaw very humble beginning they have developed into a group of athletes who dominated nearly every major event at Monday's meet.

In the 100 yards (open) out of eight entrants, seven were Spartans, who took the first five places. In the 220, the first four places were taken by Spartans, while in the 880 yards the first three, and in the mile second, third and fourth places were captured.

All the jumps except the high jump were won by the Spartan Athletic Club. First three places in the broad jump and first two places in the pole vault being taken. Finally, rounding off a great series of victories, the Spartan medley relay team ran their opponents completely into the ground.

Although severely handicapped by a complete lack of training facilities, the boys feel after yesterday's BOOTH WON performance that they are doing what they set out to do, namely improve the calibre of track and field sports in the city.

Weather permitting, the club will wind up its season's activities with a meet on Saturday, September 12, at 3:30 o'clock immediately after the Junior football game.

Spartan Organization Justified Its Baseball Classic to Open on October 1 in National League City

Mountain Landis, commissioner of organized baseball, announced that the 1931 World Series would open on October 1 in St. Louis or New York, the later city still having a remote chance to win the National League pennant.

The second game will be played in the National League City on October 2 and the series will then move to Shibe Park, Philadelphia, where the Athletics, already assured of the American League pennant, will be at home to the National League visitors on October 5, 6, and 7.

The two remaining games, if necessary, will be played in St. Louis, New York or Philadelphia alternately.

amy Way you look at

THERE are few foods you can buy that give you as much satisfaction for your money as Kellogg's Corn Flakes.

Out of a single package you get many delicious servings—at a cost of only a few cents. Kellogg's are delightful for breakfast or lunch, with milk or cream, fruits or honey added.

Great for the children's evening meal or for a tasty snack before going to bed. So healthful and easy to digest.

No other ready-to-eat cereal in the world is so popular. No other corn flakes have ever been able to duplicate Kellogg's own matchless crispness and flavor.

That is why wise buyers will accept no substitute for genuine Kellogg's. They know that imitations are never "just like" the original of all corn flakes. Look for the redand-green package at your grocer's. With the exclusive inner-seal waxtite wrapper that keeps the flakes oven-fresh even after opening. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

You'll enjoy Kellogg's Slumber Music, broadcast over WJZ and associated stations of the N. B. C. every Sunday evening at 10.30 E. D. S. T. Also KFI Los Angeles, KOMO Seattle at 10.00, and KOA Denver at 10.30.

These fine liquors are famous for their uniform high quality. You can buy these brands with every confidence.
