Thousand Take Part in Parade and Service at Cenotaph

Great War were lived over for a while by Prince Rupert people yesterday in observing Remembrance Day, the thirteenth anniversary of the Armistice which brought the titanic world conflict to a close. A drenching rain did not deter a huge assemblage from participating in and witnessing the street parade and service at the cenotaph in the Court House grounds which were part of the United States governthe chief features of the day's observance. All citizens posible turned out to revere and keep bright the memory of the Glorious Dead of the War. The ceremonies were conducted and witnessed with a spirit of NURSE IS real sincerity and the proceedings were most impressive. Several hundred persons marched in the procession from the Canadian Legion headquarters, along Third Avenue to Sixth Street and via Sixth Street and Second Avenue to the Cenotaph. In the procession, which was marshalled by Major S. D. Johnston, were Boys' Band, Pipe ters of the Empire members and committed suicide. Moose Legion band. Association Decides It Will Not Be Active on Behalf of Any Party; Suggestions For Cutting of Operating Expenses

The Northern B. C. Salmon Fishermen's Association, at its annual convention, strongly disapproved of the provincial government's one per cent taxation, as it is intended to apply it to fishermen's gross earnings. While this has not been applied this year to fishermen, yet the provincial government insists that it is logical to have, say, a cannery deduct one per cent of the gross value of fish delivered, and the fishpersonal overhead, to enable him to recollect any overage taken from his earnings. Fishermen's earnings frequently for a few weeks appear to be great, but, if spread over the entire year, oftimes do not amount to low wages for the year.
