Max Schmeling Ready to Take On Primo Carnera This Fall In Defence of Championship

NEW YORK, July 9.—Max Schmeling, world's heavy-weight boxing champion, announced yesterday that he was prepared to defend his title early next fall against Primo Carnera, the giant Italian. The announcement followed a conference between managers of the two pugilists and Madison Square Garden interests. September 17 is tentatively set as the date for the fight but the venue has not yet been selected although Chicago, Philadelphia and Jersey City are mentioned as possible sites. Schmeling is banned from New York.

Carnera had already been signed by the Garden to meet the winner of the Schmeling-Stribling bout last Friday.

It was announced on behalf of Schmeling that he was agreeable providing he defeats Carnera, to meet next summer the winner of the forthcoming match between Jack Sharkey and Mickey Walker.

NATIVE SONS DEFEAT ELKS IN BASEBALL

Canucks Now Assured of Tie at Least With Hotelmen For First Half Honors

Batting Rally Fails

Five Runs in Last Two Innings By Lodgemen Not Enough to Catch Winners

Sons of Canada defeated Elks in last evening's baseball fixture at Acropolis Hill grounds by a score of 8-6, and thereby assured themselves of at least a tie for first half honors with the Old Empress team who have to win both their remaining games to earn a tie. Elks, as a result of their loss, are practically certain to rest in the cellar for the half.

The Canucks started right off in the first inning by garnering four runs on four hits and an error. Stalker struck out. Roberts and Moran singled and then Stone missed Lambie's high fly in right field, filling the bases. Styles struck out but Frizzell cleared the paths with a double to left. J. Comadina followed with another double to left and Frizzell scored. Bury hit what appeared to be a double to left but failed to touch first and Comadina's run did not count.

They added three more in the third. Harold booted Moran's drive. Lambie sacrificed and Moran scored on Styles single. Frizzell was safe when Harold fumbled his grounder. Comadina was tossed out by George Mitchell. Bury drove a two-bagger into left, both runners scoring. Johnson struck out.

One more was added in the fifth. Frizzell singled and went to third when Stephens missed the throw to catch him. Comadina struck out. Frizzell scored when Bury was put out at first. Johnson singled. Stalker walked and Roberts was tossed out by Chenoski.

Elks first run came in the fourth. W. Mitchell filed out to Comadina. Skinner singled and went to second. He went to third when Lambie threw out G. Mitchell, and scored when Roberts returned the ball poorly to Styles. Chenoski fouled out to Roberts.

They added two more in the sixth. Bury missed Stephens grounder. W. Mitchell doubled to right. Skinner went out to Moran and Stephens scored. G. Mitchell walked. Morrison missed Chenoski's high fly and W. Mitchell scored. Stone struck out and Clapp filed out to Bury.

In the seventh they made a bold attempt to even things up but were short by two runs. Harold singled. Farquhar walked. Stephens singled and Harold scored. W. Mitchell was thrown out by Bury. Skinner struck out. G. Mitchell singled to centre scoring Farquhar and Stephens. Bury threw out Chenoski at first.

The game was played in the short time of one hour and 20 minutes, and with the co-operation of the players, Umpire Brookes says he will endeavor to speed up future contests in the same manner.

Father and Son Compete

Father and son, Old Dan and Young Dan Froggates, compete for riding honors at Bainbridge race track, Cleveland, Ohio. Veterans at track only recall one similar father-and-son jockey story, that of two Haywoods who rode in same race at Sheepshead Bay, N. Y., some thirty-five years ago.

CUBS DROP BACK AGAIN

Philadelphia Athletics Take Another From Washington

NEW YORK, July 9.—The Chicago Cubs, by losing to Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday dropped back into fourth place in the National League behind the Brooklyn Robins who were idle, being prevented by rain from playing their game with the Boston Braves.

In the American League, it was again a disastrous day for the Washington Senators who dropped another decision to the Philadelphia Athletics. With a lead now of six and a half games, the Athletics should soon have the pennant safely stowed away again this year. New York Yankees took both ends of a double-header from Boston Red Sox.

Yesterday's scores:

National League
Pittsburg 5, Chicago 2.
Philadelphia 5, New York 4.
Brooklyn-Boston, rain.

American League
New York 13-9, Boston 3-4.
St. Louis 7, Detroit 1.
Cleveland 10, Chicago 6.
Philadelphia 7, Washington 3.

SOFTBALL EXCITING

Station Wins Haines Trophy By Defeating Offices 3 to nil

In what was undoubtedly the most exciting softball game ever played on the Canadian National Recreation Association grounds, the Station last night laid claim to the Haines Softball Trophy by defeating the Offices 3-0, before several hundred spectators.

The Station players put up the best combination game that they have played this season, and it was practically impossible for the Offices to put anything past them.

Until the third inning, the game was absolutely air-tight but, in the first half of the fourth, the Station opened the scoring when Tobey and Astoria crossed the home plate. Again in the first half of the eighth inning Moxley crossed the plate and made the third and last run, while the Offices found it impossible to break through.

Batteries were Tobey and Cross for the Station; Boulter and Geddes for the Offices.

The line-ups on the teams were as follows:

Station—Cross, c.; Tobey, p.; Wicks, 1b.; Astoria, 2b.; Eldridge, ss.; Unger, 3b.; McIntosh, lf.; T. Smith, cf.; Moxley, rf.

Offices—Horton, 3b.; Hibbard, ss.; C. Smith, 2b.; Geddes, c.; Nelson, 1b.; Arney, lf.; McFie, cf.; Boulter, p.; Jenkins, rf.

After the game, Wm. Reid, chairman of the softball committee, presented the cup to Mr. Astoria, acting captain of the Station in the place of Stiles, the regular captain. Mr. Astoria replied appropriately.
