ANNIE BEING REBUILT HERE

Was One of Pioneer Boats of Vancouver Island Before Coming Here.

With only the stub of a gaily decorated bowsprit to identify her to those who knew her in the past, the notable old sloop 'Annie' lies in Cow Bay, being practically rebuilt by her owner, Capt. Kohrt, who is well known here.

Early in September Capt. Kohrt came north from Victoria with the old boat which had been lying up the West Coast of Vancouver Island for some years, having been seized for debt. The Prince Rupert man went south and took the vessel to Victoria where he bought her. Coming up the coast Capt. Kohrt had trouble with the engine and was forced to put into Nanaimo. He then returned to Vancouver where he made the needed repairs and started out again. Constant engine trouble worried him all the way north, the trip being made in two weeks.

The Annie is of unknown years. She sailed up the West Coast of the Island when Victoria was young, and her rapid voyages with sealing supplies to the stores of her owner, Charles Spring, made her well known in the port. It was out of Victoria and on the West Coast that she seems to have operated. Power was installed a few years ago and shortly afterward the sloop was seized. She lay neglected until purchased by Capt. Kohrt who is now rebuilding her as a motorboat. He claims that the old hull is sound but the remainder of the craft he is replacing. She is copper-sheathed. The sides of the Annie formerly had an unusually large tumble home, but by the removal of four planks on either side Capt. Kohrt has eliminated this. She once carried a large spread of canvas and was gaily decorated. With the power installation came the clipping of her wings.

The new owner of the Annie is leaving only the old name and the bowsprit stump as mementos of past glories. He intends to use his boat for small salvage jobs that large companies cannot afford to handle. He will also fish or do other work as opportunity offers.

SILVER STANDARD TO BE DEVELOPED AT GREATER DEPTH

After visiting the Silver Standard mine it was stated by General J. W. Stewart, who is one of the chief owners and who returned from active service in France only a few months ago, that development at greater depth will be undertaken without delay. He says that there is no doubt that he and his associates have a mine, and, if expectations are confirmed by the work proposed, it will become one of the largest producers of the province.

The Silver Standard Mine has been opened up and proven to a depth of 250 feet on what was previously known as the main vein, and to a depth of 125 feet on No. 4 vein. The ore as a rule is high grade, but of a somewhat complex nature, requiring a little different treatment from the usual run of silver-lead ores. The proper treatment, however, after considerable research, has been established.

General Stewart states that it has been realized that development at greater depth is necessary, and plans have been considered to carry on further work.

CUTTER BEAR MAY BE PURCHASED FOR SALMON CARRYING

The announcement that the Grand Trunk Pacific is now looking for a vessel to aid the Tillamook in the northern salmon trade has brought on speculation as to what boat will be procured. It is understood that a number have been already looked at, and the latest information picked up points to the purchase of the American revenue cutter Bear. This steamer has made a name for herself as patrol ship of the far northern waters, and has successfully withstood many seasons of battle with the ice and terrific storms of the Bering Sea. It has been the Bear that has steamed to the rescue of the survivors from the various wrecks which Mrs. Forbes makes butter in much the same way that Mrs. Dodson does, except that she uses 1/2-lb. butter to a small tin of Pacific Milk, and adds a pinch of baking soda.

BOLSHEVIKS ADOPT HORRIBLE TORTURES

In Mad Orgy of Death and Destruction Tortures of Middle Ages Reverted to.

GENEVA, Dec. 22.—Refugees flocking here from Russia state that the atrocities being perpetrated by the Bolsheviks in Russia reach almost the depth of mad ravage and horrible vengeance. The tortures of the middle ages are common methods of death and destruction. Human life is no consideration and the Reds take a barbarous delight in inflicting horrible tortures. The bourgeois in many cases are burnt alive in oil at the stake and even crucified.

How to Foil Wind and Weather on Washday

From now until spring a battle that endangers health must on washday be waged with rain and sleet.

That, or drying the washing in the cellar or attic, with its attendant inconvenience and sour smells.
