THE MAYORALTY

To the Electors of the City of Prince Rupert—
At the earnest solicitation of a large number of voters, I have consented to become a candidate for the mayoralty in this city for the year 1920. All voters who wish a clean, efficient city government, I appeal to you for your support. Those voters who wish the city to remain in its present disgraceful condition will have to support one of my opponents.
Yours respectfully,
W. H. MONTGOMERY.
