DAILY EDITION. Tuesday, Dec. 23, 1919.

The Christmas Spirit And Community Smile.

Christmas is that time when folks remember folks with gifts. Christ, history records, was born nearly two thousand years ago, and lived for others, dying for them, too. And the memory of the Carpenter has lived as the memory of a man who wanted to be the friend of everyone.

The giving of gifts has ever been the means of expressing regard and goodwill. Regard and Goodwill!—Let's have a little idealism at this season. Let's forget the little, inconsequential, unreasonable things that make us dislike each other. Let's with tolerance all be friends—for Christmas at least. And then if we like it, perhaps we will eliminate small town pettiness for keeps.

Let's not look on the cost mark on the gifts we get this Christmas. Let us not laugh at that which is well meant. Let us rather, remembering whom we are honoring, read on each tissue package this standard aid to the proper after words, "Accept this gift, not for its intrinsic value, but for the spirit in which it is given."

And for Christmas—A Community Smile.

The Tidings of Comfort and Joy.

Peace on Earth and Goodwill toward Men! While still recuperating from four years of the most devastating warfare that has ever troubled this old world, with the nations standing on the threshold of a new Era, the spirit of Christmas ought this year to possess a new significance. Having experienced war on an unexampled scale with all its horrors, every combatant people—and the neutrals as well—are appreciating peace at its true and real value. No one wants war any more. Away with it! We have Peace. But Goodwill? The spirit of Christ demands that Goodwill toward Men follow upon Peace. Not only between nation and nation, country and country, city and city, class and class, but between man and man. Whoso stirs up strife between man and man is the enemy of both, and between class and class the enemy of all. Life is too short to quarrel. Let us endeavor to maintain the spirit of Christmas throughout the year.

What the Future Has in Store.

The problems which lie before us as a nation are very much similar to that before the individual. And as each individual solves his own problem, so will that of the nation be solved. To obtain the fullest expression of the best that lies within us is for the individual, and to enable this for each one is for the statesman. There are undoubtedly many adjustments necessary in our constituted society before the millenium dawns, or for that matter before many moons wax and wane, yet with Courage and Pertinacity, and Goodwill towards Men, great things may be accomplished. Socialism, the hope of so many and the horror of others, is after all, only applied Christianity. It were well, therefore, that we carry the glad tidings with us throughout the seasons and not drop them on the threshold of the New Year.

The Gift Appreciated Later by That Little Boy or Girl of Yours.

Your laughing little boy or girl in a few years will be a serious man or woman. A very small sacrifice will help greatly to make the pathway more smooth that they must tread. For example, you are 40 years of age your child 10 years, a saving of less than $1.00 per week will mean to the child an income of $40.00 per month for life even were you to leave tomorrow. Larger or smaller sums in proportion.

We can issue Policies on the Endowment Plan between the ages one and fifteen years. Why not one of these as a Christmas gift for your boy or girl. Success or failure—worry or happiness—so much in years to come may depend upon the possession of even a comparatively small income.

Let us explain more fully to children Endowment and income Policies to you.
