Three of the clever pupils of Nan Craig are to give some new acrobatic stunts at the Capitol Theatre tonight and tomorrow.

Little Joyce Gawthorne, only six years of age, will be the star per-Davey and Nona Hodgson, both clever girls. The acrobatics are said to be particularly clever. All these girls have been seen in public before on several occasions but never to so good advantage as they will be tonight in this absolutely new work.

W. G. Chester Serves Order Railway Conductors for Quarter Century

Ta7hen W. G. (Billy) Chester, of WW Winnipeg, retired after twentyfive years service as general chairman of the Canadian Pacific section of the Order of Railway Conductors, something of the character that had won him the esteem of not only the men for whom he acted as chie spokesman, but of the company with which he negotiated was revealed by Grant Hall, senior vicepresident of the Canadian Pacific Railway, when he said:

He knew how to be firm when what he thought were the rights of his men were at stake, without creating ill-feeling in the minds of company officials with whom he might be negotiating.

This is what Chester himself has to say of these relationships: "My relations with the members of the organization and with the general officers of the company have been most friendly and satisfactory and the boys on the road have always given me a fair break. I have had the same treatment from the company's officials. I have tried to

Young Woman Frankly Confesses

Ashamed of Her Complexion -Fruit-a-tives Brought Loveliness

MISS A. P. says: "I had skin eruptions that made me ashamed to be seen; and mean headaches. Then I started to take Fruit-a-tives. My skin soon became clear and lovely: the headaches vanished; and a new, happy life started for me." There is something to Fruit-a-tives. They stimulate five vital organs to act naturally, the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and skin, thus purifying the blood, strengthening the nerves and toning up the entire system. They are a natural beauty treatment. 25c and 50c. At all druggists.

MONDAY & TUESDAY - "VIENNESE NIGHTS"

Will Rogers, popular American comedian and humorist, in the feature picture "Business and Pleasure," at the Capitol Theatre this week-end, gives a characteristically entertaining performance. Taking the part of a Middle West razor manufacturer, he goes on a Mediterranean cruise with his wife and daughter. Incidentally, he has a business scheme in mind and is anxious to get his daughter away from an unhappy love affair at home. They journey to Algiers where the daughter and a sophisticated Broadway playwright, who had been on board ship, discover they have much in common. Th playwright's interest, however, gets a jolt when a cablegram announces that his play has "flopped" and that he is broke. The climax is reached when Rogers is captured by Arabs who are about to engage in a tribal war. How he averts per sonal catastrophe in the war and re-unites his family is one of the
