NATIONAL RADIO

The decision of the Privy Council yesterday that the Dominion Parliament has supreme control over all radio by purchase. There are 8158 books broadcasting and reception in Canada gives Premier Bennett a great opportunity to undertake a national broadcasting scheme somewhat similar to that in Great Britain.

If Members of the board present at Vancouver had as good a station or a little better, Prince the meeting were G. V. Wilkinson, Rupert would be able to get Canadian reception all the Thomas B. American flour or the lucky method of curing throat trouble. The air is full of specifics and eulogies and to get a little music the listener is nauseated with much advertising. Even music itself is perverted to the jingle of an advertisement rhyme.

In a newspaper the reader has the option of reading the advertisements or not as he pleases but when listening over the radio there is nothing to do but tune out and try some other station. That is one reason why Calgary radio Editor, Daily News:station is so popular. There are few objectionable interruptions. Even if the music is not always very high class it is better than the terrible discord of mingling crude advertisements with good music.

ALD. CASEY REPLIES

Having read with interest letters appearing over signatures of citizen and Observer on the 8th and 9th inst. The inference I gather from their argument, is that those who oppose the views set forth by the invisible writers are first: Lawbreakers, police bosses and allround bad people who wish to imtives to those who differ with us sound conclusions and correct Abraham Lincoln, "you may fool all the people some of the time and some of the people all the time, but you can't fool all the people all the time." For remember everything that glitters is not gold. The thing for the voters to bear in mind is that, where authority is not established and maintained by the body politic, it develops back of the screen through an invisible force exercising dominant authority without responsibility. Hence Observer and Citizen are attempting to steer the public ship into the very rocks they pretend to avoid. A community that relinquishes

Thanking you, Mr. Editor,

A large gathering of young people met in the First Presbyterian Church Hall last evening at the regular meeting of the Young People's Society.

The speaker for the evening was Orville Denstedt, of the Biological Station, who gave an illustrated lecture on vitamins and their relationship to certain diseases. Following the address, the recreation was featured by a "womanless wedding," in which Eddie Smith was the blushing bride, taking the part of Rosebud Delicatessen. Others taking part were Sydney Hunter, Bill Bremner, Aubrey Ivarson, Jack McRae, J. A. Teng, Garfield McKinley and Tom Marshall.

In addition to this, games and refreshments were enjoyed.
