CANNERIES TO OPERATE

Officials and Members of Crews of Mill Bay and Arrandale Here Last Evening Northbound

Officials and members of the crews of two Naas River canneries—the B. C. Packers plant at Mill Bay and that of the Anglo-British Columbia Packing Co. at Arrandale—were aboard the steamer Catala last evening bound north from Vancouver to institute work preparatory to the season's operations.

The party for Mill Bay included George Harris, manager; E. Cummings, accountant, and Watson D. Noble, storekeeper. Mill Bay, which operated only as a camp last season, will be packing salmon again this summer.

The party for Arrandale was headed by W. E. Walker, manager, and C. F. Griffin, accountant.

Supreme Jingles Just For Fun and Not Competition

A local lad delivered at the office of Stewart & Mobley an envelope containing a number of "Supreme Jingles," not for entry in their competition but "just for fun." The roasters of Supreme Coffee ask him to return and he will be given a pound of Supreme just for fun. Here are a few of the jingles:

Mary bought a little lamb And all the trimmings fine, Then asked mama and pa-in-law, That night to come and dine.

The dinner was a great success, The angel cake, a dream, But the crowning glory, you can guess,

Was when Mary served Supreme.

Jack Spratt could eat no fat, His wife could eat no lean, But they both liked coffee, they agreed on that

If the coffee was Supreme.

Little Jack Horner sat in a corner And would not be satisfied with toffee,

He liked Christmas pie, But how he did cry For a cup of good Supreme Coffee.

Pussy cat, pussy cat, where have you been?

I've been up to London for a pound of Supreme;

Pussy cat, pussy cat, why go so far? Why no other coffee would do for my ma.

Three blind mice, see how they run, They all ran after the farmer's wife For they smelled Supreme Coffee you can bet your life,

They are not afraid of her carving knife, These three blind mice.

Roses are red, violets are blue, Drink Supreme Coffee like wise men do.

Fire Under Walk Saturday Night

Spectacular Blaze on Third Avenue Caused No Damage—Started in Waste Paper

Billows of heavy smoke and flashes of flame issued early Saturday evening from a fire which broke out in the foundation of the creosoted lumber sidewalk on Third Avenue across from the Daily News but, although the fire was rather spectacular and drew a big crowd of spectators, it occasioned no material damage except to scorch the sidewalk foundation. The blaze is believed to have started in waste paper which had been stowed under the sidewalk after being removed from a nearby hoarding. The fire department was called and soon extinguished.

C. P. Ashmore, general manager of the Granby store at Anyox, was a passenger aboard the Catala last evening returning to the smelter town after a business trip to Vancouver.

SLEEPLESS, PALE, NERVOUS

Mrs. Hart Completely Restored to Normal Health After Taking 6 Boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

FEELING WELL AGAIN.

"I was in a weak, run-down condition—sleepless, pale, nervous and with loss of appetite," writes Mrs. R. M. Hart, of Toledo, Ont. "I was often taking weak and fainting spells, and weighed only 105 pounds. I finally decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking six boxes I was completely restored to a normal condition. I also gained 23 pounds. My condition began to improve after taking the second box. I have had no recurrence of my trouble since. I strongly advise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anyone in the same condition as I was in."

Mrs. Roy Holland, R. R. 4, Dunville, Ont., describes her case as follows: "Just about a year ago I was in a general rundown state of health. No appetite, nervous and irritable. Could not sleep at night; if ever kept still. My limbs would twitch; I would cry over nothing, and I was ashamed to find myself cross with the children. I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills again, as I had used them before with good results. The results were excellent again. I am now feeling well again, can do all kinds of work, and weigh more than I have for a long time."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have earned the praises of thousands of sufferers like these whose health has been restored by their aid. These Pills actually create new red blood, which supplies to the nerves the very elements they need and builds up the whole system. Try them if you are run down, anemic or rheumatic. Now obtainable in the new glass containers at your druggist's. 50c a package.
