SCEPTIC WANTS TO KNOW

Editor, Daily News:-What is all this bunk that you have been putting in your paper regarding Supreme Coffee? Is this just "blah" or do you really believe that the coffee is better than other coffees? Furthermore do you examine the merits of the goods advertised in your paper and what proof have you that inferior goods are not passed off as the best?

Don't you think that this "made 90c in Prince Rupert' slogan is all eyewash as coffee berries are not made (This is a good buy. Don't miss it) in Prince Rupert so obviously that claim is not very sound. Yours for honest dealing,
