The Letter Box

Sports Editor, Daily News:—
Some time ago Owen Fisher, on behalf of Billy Bagshaw, accepted my challenge to box Bagshaw, guaranteeing a purse of $100 to be split either on a percentage basis or winner take all. I will accept on the latter basis, the bout to take place at any time.

BASKETBALL AT TERRACE

High School Takes Two Straight Victories and Is Leading League

TERRACE, Jan. 5.—In regular basketball games here on Saturday, the High School took the town lads to camp in an easy victory. Johnstone, Little and McLeod gathered the most points for the High School, while Thomas and Hipp were the bright lights of the town team.

The game was fast all through but the town boys suffered from the lack of co-operation.

This game places the High School squad on the top of the league with two straight victories.

Final score, High School, 29; Town, 16.

The line-ups:

Town—Hipp (8), Stout (2), Hill, Lever, Thomas (6).

High School—Green, Little (11), Olsen, McKenney, Nash, McLeod (8), Johnstone (10), Kerr.

In the girls game the Dumbells entirely outclassed the Dubs with a score of 20 to 3. The Dumbells had the advantage of more experienced players.

SPORT NEWS

The executive of the Omineca Ski Club at Burns Lake are exerting themselves to finance the Olympic entry fund which will be required by Eaare Engstad on his trip to Princeton for the try-outs and from there to Lucerne, Quebec, and finally to Lake Placid, N. Y., for the Olympic games. As Engstad is the selected entry from Central and Northern British Columbia, the choice is an honor to the whole district, and several communities are showing their appreciation by putting on entertainments, the proceeds of which will go to the Olympic entry fund.

It was understood that the Canadian Amateur Ski Association would bear part of the transportation and training expenses of the skiers from the West, but a wire from S. R. Lockberg, chairman and trainer of the Olympic, informed the entrants from the West that they will have to pay their own way. Considering that the district may not have an opportunity to have a man from this district on an Olympic team for many years, the Omineca Ski Club feels that the financing of Engstad's trip is a matter of general interest.

FIGURES IN SPORT

AD WOLGAST, BOXER

For many years since his ring encounters have been a thing of the past and he had been declared by the courts to be incompetent. Adolph (Ad) Wolgast, who was boxing champion of the world in the lightweight division, has trained rigorously in a Los Angeles gymnasium, believing that on the morrow he would get a chance to stage a comeback and again fight for the title. From the time Wolgast temporarily quit boxing in 1913 until he was adjudged insane for the third time in 1921 Wolgast's fortune, once estimated at $250,000, dwindled away. Since 1924 he has spent his days at California State Hospital at Patton. Born at Cadillac, Michigan, February 8, 1888, of German-American extraction, Ad, in his prime, stood five feet four and three-quarter inches in height and weighed 130 pounds. In his young days he was a newsboy in California, boxing on the side. His news beat brought him into contact with Jim Jeffries, former heavyweight champion, then a Los Angeles saloon proprietor. It was Jeffries that "discovered" Wolgast's boxing abilities. They came to the parting of the ways only in 1913 when Wolgast decided to quit the ring the first time. Wolgast won the lightweight championship by defeating Battling Nelson in a bloody 40-round battle at Point Richmond, across the bay from San Francisco, in 1910. It was practically a technical knock-out against Nelson who received $13,000 while Wolgast and his manager got $3,000. Wolgast defended his crown 22 times before losing it to Willie Ritchie at San Francisco on a foul in 16 rounds in 1912. Ad received $27,000 for this bout.

Wolgast was a happy-go-lucky individual and cared little of finances or the future. It was his ability to strike down a foe with either fist which made him such a champion. Between 1914 and 1917 he tried vainly to come back.

In 1916 he was first declared insane and later was adjudged competent. Once more he was declared insane and again competent. Later he became violent and has since been at Patton. He has given up intensive training although he occasionally engages in roadwork.

ELY LEAD WAS CUT

Lenz and Liggett Had Good Night In Bridge Marathon—Reduced Margin to 16,835

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Ely Culbertson's side was 16,835 points ahead in the contract bridge marathon today with 21 rubbers remaining to be played.

Sidney Lenz and Commander Winfield Liggett last night gained 3,385 points, winning six of nine rubbers.

VIGILANT WON RACE

Sprint From Honolulu to Seattle Ended When Schooner Tied Up at Winslow

SEATTLE, Jan. 5.—The five-masted schooner Vigilant was docked at Winslow today, the victor in a thrilling ocean race from Honolulu over the four-masted Commodore which today was still a short distance off Cape Flattery under tow for Bellingham.

CLEAR UP BILLIARDS

One Junior League Fixture Finished and But One Match to Play in Another

The fifth game from last Thursday night's Junior Billiard League fixture between Jewelers and League of Nations was played last night, William Stuart winning for the Jewelers over Benny Wendle by a score of 200 to 184. The Jewelers thus took the fixture by an aggregate score of 963 to 911.

The fourth game from last Monday night's fixture between Empress and Hawks was also played last night, Nick Chenoski winning for the Hawks by a score of 200 to 150 over W. E. Hayhurst. Lead of the Empress over the Hawks now stands at 773 to 684 with Paul Johnson (Empress) and W. Hudson (Hawks) to play the last game tonight.

Miss Ruth McGinnis, Honesdale, Pa., the world's woman billiard champion, gives a demonstration and challenges all comers. She's left-handed, too.

WANT SIX HOUR DAY

Provincial Labor Delegates Wait on Government With Requests

Organized labor in British Columbia, through its provincial executive, had a two-hour conference with the provincial government in Victoria last week, when P. R. Bengough, vice-president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, and other delegates, waited on Premier Tolmie and the cabinet. A round table discussion of labor matters followed, in which the government promised consideration of the proposals put forward.

Among the requests advanced was a plea for legislation to bring about a six-hour day and a five-day week in British Columbia, increase in workmen's compensation benefits to a full 75% of the current wage paid to the employee at the time of his injury, creation of a system of health insurance, remission of income taxation on all earnings less than $3,000 per annum, enactment of provincial fair wage legislation, and increase in rates allowed for road and other work under provincial control. The delegates also favored a scheme of national unemployment insurance and revision upwards of scales paid on relief undertakings.

The visit was the annual one paid by members of the provincial executive of the congress to the provincial government. The proposals were spoken to by Mr. Bengough, assisted by R. W. Nunn, Colin McDonald, S. D. Macdonald and E. H. Morrison.

Members of the cabinet promised consideration of the proposals on their merits.

COMMITTEE NOT LEGAL

City Solicitor Gives Opinion on Proposal of Ratepayers' Association

City Solicitor E. F. Jones advised the city council at last night's meeting that it had no authority to appoint a special committee on city assessment such as had been suggested by the Prince Rupert Ratepayers' Association. The opinion of the solicitor will be forwarded to the association for its information.

The Ratepayers' Association asked the council at its earliest convenience to appoint a committee of three competent valuers, not members of the city council or City Hall staff, to examine the assessments and record opinions on the values of each separate parcel which would be reported to the court of revision as an aid in dealing with appeals against the assessment.

The city solicitor gave the opinion that the council had no authority to appoint such a committee. It would simply mean the making of a second assessment at the city's expense. The Ratepayers' Association, of course, could present any evidence and views it might desire to at the court of revision.

On motion of Ald. Collart and Ald. Pullen, it was decided to send the report of the city solicitor on to the Ratepayers' Association. Ald. Rudderham and Ald. Macdonald were opposed to the city undertaking any expenditure such as would be involved in the making of a second assessment at a time when funds were so urgently needed in other directions. Ald. Pullen thought it would be a ridiculous position for the city to appoint an assessor and then a committee to reassess the assessor.

INSTALLATION NEAR READY

Work of Providing Radio Telephone Service Out of Here Is Proceeding Steadily

Installation of the Northwest Telephone Co.'s local radiophone plant on the temporary receiving and transmission sites here is now nearing completion. Following completion of the installations, there will be a good deal of experimental work to be carried on. It is understood that the new form of communication will be pretty well established by the end of this month.

Fast on the heels of Paris' 1932 beauty queen comes Fraulein Liebmann, a Berlin mannequin crowned "Miss Germany 1932." Still Czechoslovakia and the Oberlin Hinterland to hear from.

REPORT OF ENGINEER

Expenditures of City Public Works Department Held Down Well

Expenditures of the civic public works department for the year 1931 totalled $46,120 as compared with an estimate for the year of $47,700, the city council was advised in a report presented at last night's meeting by City Engineer F. N. Good. The figures given, Mr. Good explained, were approximate only, but he gave assurance that in all cases actual expenditures would not exceed the totals.

Mr. Good's report was as follows:

	Estim.	Expen.
1931	1931	1931
Public Health	$10,800	$10,170
Eng. Admin. & Public Works Maint.	20,200	16,260
P. W. Tools & Equipment	700	3,450
Fire Main Const.	4,000	3,550
Seal Cove Approach (Relief)	900	800
Booth School clear. (Relief)		790
Exhibition Road (Relief)		120
Sewer Maint.	1,400	1,630
Water Dept.	9,700	9,350
Totals	$47,700	$46,120

Notwithstanding the purchase of an additional $2,700 of equipment rendered necessary by relief work and an additional $900 relief work, not allowed for in estimates, the actual expenditures show a total approximately $1,600 below estimates.

Comments By Aldermen

Ald. Pillsbury referred to the fact that in the six-year period between 1925 and 1931 expenditures of the department had been cut from $61,000 to $36,000 or almost in two.

Ald. Collart thought it was a very good showing. The department had been more careful this year than ever before. He thought congratulations were due the city engineer.

Ald. Macdonald agreed that it was an exceptionally good showing. The city engineer was to be complimented upon the efficient manner in which the work had been carried on.

Ald. Pullen thought that appreciation should also be voiced to the men who had done such good work under considerably less than normal wages.

Mayor C. H. Orme agreed with the sentiments which had been voiced by the aldermen who spoke on the matter.

The report of the engineer was received and filed.

A Japanese man from Port Eslington, suffering from a broken leg, the result of having fallen from a wharf, was brought to the city on this morning's train and removed in the ambulance to the Prince Rupert General Hospital for treatment.

Dawson Creek Forges Ahead

New Town in Peace River Block Continues to Make Notable Progress

DAWSON CREEK, Jan. 5.—This new Peace River Block town, which virtually sprung up during the past year as a result of the railway extension, is now one of the busiest spots in the district and is still going ahead.

There are many businesses here now with five elevators, three hotels, three churches, an outstanding new school and a hospital.

Kitwano Folk Paid Kitzegucla Holiday Visit

KITSEGUGLA, Jan. 5.—There were good times this Christmas in Kitzegucla Indian village when many friends from Kitwano spent twelve enjoyable days there.

The program of entertainment included coffee-parties given by the Council, Woman's Christian Union, the Ladies' Club, the Athletic Club and others. There was music and speeches.

Kitwano presented a punching-ball to the president of the village Athletic Club and was suitably thanked by Alfred McDawes.

Herring Run Is Not Yet On In District Waters

The herring run has not, as yet, started to any extent in local waters. Recently there has been a gill net boat operating at Wark Canal but results have been very uncertain.
