This is the day for the opening of the great Democratic convention which will choose a man to contest the presidency with Hoover. It is really the formal opening of the great national contest because the moment the candidate is chosen he turns his efforts from fighting to secure the nomination to fighting to secure election. In most cases, the men who have been opposing the successful candidate League baseball fixture Saturday St. Louis Cardinals. for nomination will be supporting him for election the afternoon. moment the convention is over. ## REDUCING HOLIDAY SIZE

Just during the holiday period the size of the Daily News has been reduced to four pages except for those days when advertising pressure makes a larger paper necessary. The change is not to be considered as in any respect permanent. 'As soon as the fall advertising begins to come in, the regular size will again be published.
