THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

That breathes of the west, the bounding west,

With its spirit of bold endeavor.

Away with the prophets of its decline.

All hail its hustle and moil, Forget the railing of "weak-knees," Give heed it's born of our soil. Its swing, its dash, its traditional past

Makes us its loyal slaves, It belongs to the west, the robust west,

With its rush and its surge-like waves.

A comparison of the records of Battling Jack Kelly of New York and that of Jack Kennedy, Hilliard Lang's last opponent, reveals the fact that Kelly is a much classier boy. Kennedy's record showed a 3. 3. long list of no decisions and draws, but Kelly either won his bout by the knockout route or he took the count himself.
