ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirkpatrick Hold Golden Wedding Reception in Victoria Where They Now Reside

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kirkpatrick, for twenty years residents of Prince Rupert, recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in Victoria, where they have resided for the past two years, with a reception at their home on Quadra Street in the Capital City. Many former residents of Prince Rupert were among the guests at the function which was largely attended.

The rooms of the home were attractively decorated for the occasion with spring flowers. The wedding cake, which was cut by the bride of fifty years ago, was sent from Derby, England, as a gift from a younger sister residing there. There were numerous pretty and useful gifts.

Mrs. F. Jordan was in charge of the decorations and cut the ices. Mrs. W. H. Whiteley assisted in receiving the guests. Mrs. H. L. Johnson and Mrs. F. W. Hollano, both former residents of Prince Rupert, presided at the prettily decorated tables.

Among former Prince Rupert residents who attended the reception as guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Alder, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fraser, Mrs. M. C. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson, A. E. Slocumb, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Perry, Miss Marie Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Starr, Mrs. A. L. Carruthers, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Greer, Mrs. T. D. Pattullo and Mrs. C. Collison.

Mr. Kirkpatrick was born in Clabby County, Fermanagh, Ireland, seventy-one years ago while his wife was born at Worksop, Notts, England, seventy years ago. They were married on February 16 1882, at St. Margaret's Anglican Church in Clabby where Mrs. Kirkpatrick, then Miss Swindells, was then teaching school. They came to Canada in 1910 from Derby, England, and resided in Prince Rupert until 1930 when Mr. Kirkpatrick was superannuated from the service of the customs department. During their stay in Prince Rupert they took an active part in work of the United Church. Mrs. Kirkpatrick sitting as an alderman and member of the hospital, school and library boards. Mr. Kirkpatrick is a member of the Oddfellows' order and a past grandmaster in England.

A picture of Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick appeared on Monday of last week on the social page of the Victoria Daily Times.

Apple Dumplings with Magic Baking Powder

WHEN a young housewife asks me what baking powder she should use," says Miss De Both, director of the famous De Both Home Makers' Cooking Schools, "this is my advice: Use the best—one that is pure, uniform and invariably dependable. You can't use second-rate baking powder and expect first-rate results.

"My experience with Magic has been particularly happy. I find that it never varies—that it is consistently reliable. And I know it is pure, and free from harmful ingredients."

Statements by other well-known cookery authorities give wholehearted support to Miss De Both's judgment. In fact, the majority of dietitians and cookery teachers throughout Canada use and recommend Magic exclusively.

Apple Dumplings

|---------------------------------|-----------------|
| 1 quart flour | 1 1/2 cups milk |
| 2 teaspoons Magic Baking Powder | Sugar |
| 3/4 teaspoon salt | Cinnamon |
| 2 tablespoons butter | Apples |

Sift into a bowl flour, baking powder and salt. Rub in the butter. Add cold milk to make soft dough. Turn out on to a floured board and roll into a sheet. Cut in squares. Peel and core the apples. Place an apple on each square of dough. Fill the core with a small piece of butter, sugar and a little cinnamon. Fold the dough over, taking care that there are no openings, as the steam inside dumplings cooks the apple while dough is baking. Brush dumplings with a little cream, and place in greased pans. Bake in moderate oven at 400° F. about 40 minutes. Serve with cream or hard sauce.

MAGIC BAKING POWDER

Contains no alum. This is the most reliable guarantee that Magic Baking Powder is free from alum or any harmful ingredient.

A declaration of result of the recent referendum of policing of the city was presented to the city council last night by City Solicitor E. F. Jones, returning officer, and filed. The return showed that there had been 609 votes for continuing the provincial police system, 296 for going back to city police and three spoiled ballots.

A recommendation from the Finance committee that lot 14 and half of lot 15, block 19, Section 8, for which G. Rosin has made an offer of $40 be advertised for sale was adopted by the city council at last night's meeting. The property is assessed at $60 for land while a house thereon has been valued by the city engineer at $75. It is necessary by statute for the city to advertise for sale any tax property which has a building upon it.

Lieutenant-Commissioner Robt. Henry, leader of the Salvation Army for Canada West with headquarters in Winnipeg, arrived in the city on the Cardena this morning after a brief visit to Port Simpson, accompanied by Mrs. Henry and Staff Captain Joseph Acton of Wrangell, divisional commander for Northern British Columbia and the Yukon. Tonight there will be a meeting of welcome for Commissioner Henry in First United Church and tomorrow afternoon Commissioner and Mrs. Henry will leave by train and visit interior points on their way back to Winnipeg.

AUTHORITY OF BOARD

City Council Discusses Powers of Commission Over Provincial Police—Report Presented

After considerable discussion in the course of which Ald. Casey intimated that he intended to go to the highest authority possible before he would be content to waive his responsibilities as a member of the board of police commissioners following the decision of the people to stay with the system of provincial policing of the municipality, the city council last night filed a report from the city solicitor which had been asked for by the mayor in regard to the authority of the police commission under the provincial police plan.

Mr. Jones, in his report, pointed out that, under the original agreement entered into in 1926, the superintendent of provincial police had charge of city policing, the covering act reading that "all officers and constables shall be subject to his (the superintendent's) absolute control, direction and judgment." In view of the fact that the police commission was, therefore, divested of any authority in connection with city policing, the city solicitor could see no object in the police commission calling meetings as any action it might take would be entirely futile. Mr. Jones recalled that a previous opinion of his that the commission was divested of authority had been confirmed in reference to the law firm of Patmore & Fulton. The council, if it desired, could appeal for a ruling on the subject to the attorney-general's office.

The mayor explained that he had requested Mr. Jones for the report. He had understood that, under provincial policing, the police commission ceased to function. Having been asked to call a meeting of the police commission, he (the mayor) was desirous of ascertaining if it could sit as a legal body. It would seem foolish for the commission to sit if it possessed no jurisdiction.

Ald. Pillsbury questioned whether the matter had anything to do with the city council.

Ald. Collart explained that he understood the election of police commissioners had been held only against the possibility of a change being made from provincial to city policing and that the police commission would function only if there were a city police. Under provincial policing, he saw no necessity for a police commission operating.

Mayor's Fairness

After thanking the mayor for fairness he had displayed, Ald. Casey expressed the opinion that this matter did not come within the province of the city council. He wished to have the position of the police commission ruled upon by the highest authority possible. Meantime, he was of the opinion that the provincial police was working for the city merely on a contract basis and, therefore, it came within the confines of municipal authority to pass upon the work being done under the contract. He felt that the police commission was not called upon to relinquish its diligence and responsibility with respect to seeing that the laws were enforced according to statute. The police commission or any citizen or citizens had the right, he believed, to appeal to the attorney-general if it could be seen where the laws were not being enforced. "I intend to exercise my responsibility as a police commissioner in spite of the communication before the house," declared Ald. Casey.

Not boiled or steamed, but DELICIOUSLY BAKED in the HEINZ OVENS

If you ask your grocer simply for a tin of beans you will often get the boiled or steamed variety. Only Heinz beans, of all the well-known makes, are actually baked. You know the difference between a boiled and a baked potato. There is the same difference in beans. The Heinz process of oven-baking retains all the flavour.

In a Heinz tin you find a perfection of plump, mealy, golden-brown goodness. Once you have tried Heinz oven-baked beans you'll always want the extra flavour and food value Heinz provides at so reasonable a cost.

On motion of Ald. Pillsbury, seconded by Ald. Casey, the solicitor's report was ordered filed.

City accounts for the two weeks ending February 26, totalling $4,552.05 were passed for payment at last night's council meeting.
