Rent Is High

Prime Minister is on Stand Before Committee of House

OTTAWA, May 13: - Expenditures incurred in alterations to the 15-room suite now occupied by the Prime Minister at the Chateau Laurier here amounted to $110,743 and the rental paid by Mr. Bennett is $400 per month.

These facts emerged from the House of Commons committee on failways and shipping today at Whose session the Premier was pre-

The Premier said that, when he Parned the alterations would cost $50,000, he had cabled from London requesting that the work be not proceeded with. The work had, however, been proceeded with. He did not learn until a long time afterwards that the cost had run to $110,000. He could not understand how the changes had cost so much.
