SPENDING TO SAVE .. THROUGH

Advertising

Not many of us, these days, are troubled with so much money that we cannot spend it. But we are interested in spending the money we have, to get the most out of it.

One way—and not a new way, either—is to make a budget. Put down, week by week, the money that comes in. Put down beside it, week by week, the money that goes out. So much for food, so much for clothing, so much for rent. So much for giving, and for luxuries.

Where Advertising Helps

It won't always be easy, of course, to stay within the budget. That's where advertising helps you. Advertisements in this newspaper tell you how much rugs, butter, breakfast foods, dishes, homes, automobiles will cost, before you go shopping! They point out ways to save money. They show you how to cut a little here, a little there. And each day, they tell about new inventions, new products, new ways of doing things, that help make this life of ours very much worth living!

week in Vancouver.

While it is impossible for teachers from all parts of the province to attend this convention, there were upwards of a thousand who registered for the sessions. The membership is over two thousand but, in certain localities, local conventions are held. At one of these held at Prince George the official representative from the executive of the federation was James Mitchell of Prince Rupert, now teaching in Vancouver.

In their picture, "Dance Team," Dunn and Miss Eilers have much the same type of roles as they had in their previous successes, the human flesh and blood boy and girl one would meet in the ordinary walks of life. They are fired with ambitions of youth which carry them through a series of disappointments and discouragement to success as a dancing team. With success come other problems Miss Mercer, D. H.
