Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism. Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication. Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

The Daily News

The paper that Northern and Central British Columbia people look to to keep them informed on world news and the problems peculiar to the north.

The Only A. B. C. paper north of Vancouver and west of Edmonton.

The Daily News goes into all the

- TOWNS AND VILLAGES
- MINING CAMPS
- LUMBER CAMPS
- PAPER MILLS
- FARMING CENTRES
- FISHING CAMPS

It is the paper that is read by the fishermen, miners, workers and operators throughout a district twice as large as the three Maritime Provinces of the east.

When a person wishes a message to go to the people of Northern and Central British Columbia there is only one way of sending it, and that is through the columns of the Daily News.

The future is full of hope. The Daily News is making plans to keep pace with the progress of the country. No one can afford to be without it.

The cost is small.
Delivered by Carrier, in Prince Rupert, per week, 10c.
Mailed to any address in Northern or Central B.C., $3 a year.
Mailed to points in Canada, Britain or United States, $6 a year.
