The latter had hoped that the building of the Hudson Bay Railway would have given them lower rates to the market with consequent higher prices for their grain.

But not so. The farmer is made the victim of the big commercial interests of Montreal and will get no relief that way. His case is similar to that of the Peace farmers who are threatened with a continuation of high rates for all time through the building of a line to connect with the P. G. E. to Vancouver. To route grain that way would _ mean high rates and once the rates are set there is no changing them under our present system.

WHO GETS TOURIST DOLLAR?

Four hundred million dollars seems a lot of money, but the map and chart men at Ottawa tell us that garage men, accessory dealers and service station proprietors have received this sum as their share of tourist business in Canada since 1920. The Statistical Bureau was able to show that the expenditure by tourists in Canada ranged from $83,734,000 in 1920 to $250,776,000 in 1931. By the simple expedient of asking questions, the association has determined how the tourist dollar is divided, and it seems fairly definite that 20c goes for gasoline, garaging and accessories which, in the 11 years since 1920, would amount to the afore-mentioned $400,000,000.

The destination of the remainder of the tourist dollar was also calculated. For hotel and other types of accommodation, 20c is also spent. Retail stores get 25c, restaurants 21c, confectionaries 6c, and theatres and places of amusement 8c.

There is no official Canadian estimate of how much the summer tourists will bring this year, but the American Automobile Association estimates it at $285,000,000.

The figures given above are for the tourist who comes in his own car and who drives around the country. Unhappily, owing to the failure of the government to do any work on the highway just at a time when the work was needed and owing to the general apathy toward the highway out of Prince Rupert, there is little hope of the city sharing in the tourist trade advantages unless we can secure a reasonable rate from the railway company that will enable the tourist to drive his own car and ship it over the railway into the city.

BEARS ARE HARMLESS

Black bears are perfectly harmless, according to all the authorities. Professor Hornaday in his book on the ani- Capt. William Palmer, arrived in mals of North America declares that he has run down many of the bear stories and has yet to find one in which the bear was the aggressor. Other big game hunters and aska points whence she is due to students of animal life back up the professor in his state- return here next Wednesday afment. If Hornaday is correct Tony Denacola, who this week was taken to the hospital at Prince George with injured legs, was not injured by bears. Possibly he was just scratching himself where the mosquitoes were biting.

But Tony declares that bears did it, that they chased him up a tree and that they tore at his legs in an effort to pull him down. That's where Tony differs from the authorities. Probably Professor Hornaday never had an experience with seven bears at one time as Tony declares he did. At any rate Tony has the evidence on his legs just as plain as the police sometimes find evidence in bottles and other places. It is said at Prince George that no one will henceforth persuade Mr. Denacola that black bears are harmless, especially when there are seven in a group and only one man without a gun with which to defend himself.
