Outlook For New Year Is Discussed By Clergyman-Better Things Are Coming

(By Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafoe, First Baptist Church)

"Behold, I make all things new." Rev. 21:5. We stand on the threshold of a New Year. What of the outlook? With all the history of the ages in review, with all the memory of the goodness and mercy which has followed us all the days of our lives recalled, we stand with Food Given the future all unveiled and, with simple faith in God, declare that future will surely bring for us, from the hands cause his love is unchanging and of our possessions in Christ have its fulness inexhauctable. We have never been appropriated by us.

Will Rogers Makes Hit in "Ambassador Bill"-Interesting Series of African Pictures Starts

Will Rogers hobnobs with Euronean royalty in his new picture "Ambassador Bill," showing at the Capitol Theatre this week-end, just like Maurice Chevalier did in "Love Parade." The popular American humorist gives a fine performance in this film which is a really entertaining comedy and one of his best pictures to date. He takes the part of an American ambassador to the Balkan nation of "Sylvania" and becomes entangled in everything from domestic complications to a very realistic revolution. Charming Marguerite Churchill plays the principle feminine role and gives a good account of herself in a new kind of picture for her.

Another interesting feature of the week-end program at the Capital is the first episode of a series of 12 short films entitled "Adventures in Africa" which will be shown here. These pictures will give an account of a daring expedition into Central Africa. A fierce fight between a lioness and a laughing hyena over an antelope kill features the first of photography.
