THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

A CHARMING DANCE

Entertainment in Honor of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson was a Great Success.

McIntyre Hall was the scene of a brilliant assemblage last night upon the occasion of the complimentary dance tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson by a number of gentlemen. The hall was prettily decorated with flags and streamers, the floor in perfect condition and the music by Gray's orchestra quite up to the usual standard. Delicious refreshments were served at midnight, after which dancing was continued until a late hour. Some very handsome costumes were noticed, of which a few of the most striking were: Mrs. Nelson in a beautiful gown of old gold chiffon over taffeta, heavily embroidered with blue and silver and touched with gold sequins, with diamond and sapphire ornaments; Mrs. McMaster wore her wedding gown of ivory satin en train with amethyst and pearl ornaments; Mrs. Tremayne was much admired in hyderangea pink chiffon and white lace with pearl ornaments; Mrs. Pillsbury looked extremely well in Nile green satin, with bodice garniture of French bead work in opalescent shades; Mrs. Vernor Smith had a smart imported gown of old gold satin, with exquisite bolero ornamentation of Persian embroidery; Mrs. Christie had a lovely gown of apricot satin with berthia of steel sequins; Mrs. F. McB. Young was much admired in white voile and Irish lace; Mrs. Bullock-Webster made a pretty appearance in a dainty Empire gown of shell pink and chiffon; Mrs. Lamont had a pretty gown of black net relieved with touches of pink; Mrs. Roberson had a sweet frock of pink chiffon; Mrs. McLennan wore a very handsome gown of black net and lace; Mrs. Naden looked well, in a pretty flowered organdie gown, with emerald and diamond ornaments; Mrs. Ward looked charming in a lovely gown of ivory satin and chiffon; Mrs. Craig had a smart gown of white crepe de chine, with French over-jacket of handsome lace; Mrs. McNeill had a striking gown of black sequins, combined with black velvet with berthia of cream lace, ornamented with pale pink ribbon embroidery; Mrs. Morris had a dashing costume of pale blue satin with heavily embroidered bodice garniture; Mrs. Palmer was a dainty figure in pale blue satin and lace; Mrs. Bondeau looked extremely well in pearl gray chiffon; Mrs. McIntosh wore a handsome combination of black net and silk; Others present were Mrs. Patmore, Miss McMaster, Miss Brown, Miss Craig, Miss Martin, Miss Elliot, Miss Dunn, Miss Dudsie, Miss Brodie, Miss Dunn, Miss Blackburn, Miss Thomson, Miss Monica Green (Victoria), Miss Milligan, Miss Johnstone, Miss Drummond, Miss Pinder, Mr. Pillsbury, Mr. Crippen, Mr. Emmeron, Mr. Pitcairn, Mr. Cambie, Mr. Warton, Mr. Reitchel, Mr. F. Reitchel.

A HANDSOME BLOUSE

The semi-made kimono blouse is a boon to the woman who desires handsome effects but cannot afford the finished garments. All-over lace is one of the favorite materials for the separate blouse as well as chiffon, and an unusually dainty design which brings out the beauty of the lace is shown in the sketch. The bolero effect is very smart and the arrangement of the band trimmings new and effective.

Dr. Tremayne, Dr. McNeill, Mr. Vernor Smith, Mr. Nelson, Mr. McMaster, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Harrison, Mr. Gamble, Mr. Ward, Mr. Titus, Mr. Earl Dunn, Mr. Edwards, Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Christie, Mr. Newcombe, Judge Young, Mr. McLennan, Mr. Craig, Major Gibson.

Miss Monica Green of Victoria, is the guest of her sister Mrs. Ward.
