Hirohito Had Narrow Escape From Bomb in Young Korean's Hands

Only Injury Was to Horse of Member of Monarch's Body-guard—Resignation of Cabinet Believed to Be Merely Formal

TOKYO, Japan, Jan. 8:-Premier Inukai's government, less than a month old, resigned today shortly after Emperor Hirohito had narrowly escaped becoming the victim of a bomb thrown by a young Korean as the Royal carriage was about to enter the palace grounds. The only injury was to the horse of a member of the Emperor's bodyguard.

The resignation of the government is believed to be merely formal.
