Three amateur athletic records were made at the track and field carnival of the Irish-American Athletic Club at Celtic park, New York. Gwynne Henry, of Eden, Tex., who ran unattached, won the special 125-yard scratch dash in 12 1-5 seconds. This is a new American record, the old figure being 12 2-5 seconds, made at Berkeley, Cal., twenty-two years ago by Charles A. Sherrill, of Yale and the New York Athletic Club.

A REAL LIVE LITTLE WOMAN

Twenty-six Years Old and Only Twenty-six Inches High Has Just Bought Her Trousseau.

Probably one of the smallest people in the world is Mlle. Anita who recently went from Hungary to England for the purpose of buying her trousseau. She is twenty-six years old and twenty-six inches high. She is perfectly proportioned and dresses beautifully. She is extremely accomplished, and besides her own language, Hungarian, can speak English, French and German.

NEW PLAN TO KEEP STORIES

Carefully Taken from Old Magazines They Can be Made into Charming Booklets for Idle Moments.

You may easily remove a story you want to keep from a magazine by carefully clipping the pages or loosening the wire arrangement which holds the pages together. Next thing to do is to get some booklet paper and bind your story.

Dainty lettering of the title on the cover will add to the attractiveness, or you can punch little holes in the paper and tie the whole thing together with fancy ribbon or silk cords.

This makes a thoughtful, charming, yet most inexpensive gift, and one that is pretty sure to give the recipient some happy moments.

POPULAR STYLE THIS SUMMER

Feminine Fashion Followers Favor the Square Neck Shirt-waist for New and the Fall.

The square neck bids fair to be popular this summer, if signs point aught. Many of the new shirt waists have these small square instead of a round opening, the neck being trimmed with bands of lace or embroidery insertion mitered at the corners. For a neck of this sort the material is not cut away at all at the sides or at the front and back. If it is, the square will be much too

Boiled or roasted meat which is to be used cold should be put away in a wet cloth to keep it moist and tender.

When ivory becomes discolored paint it with spirits of turpentine and lay it in the sun for two or three hours.

If shoes have become mildewed rub them well with vaseline. This will usually remove all traces of the green.

Ham soaked in milk over night will be found exceedingly tender and sweet when used for breakfast next morning.

For spring suppers sliced oranges and shredded coconut, put into a dish in alternate layers, are very appetizing.

QUEEN MARY'S CROWN IS LIGHT

Specially Designed for Coronation Ceremony by the Queen Herself It is no Heavier than a Hat.

Queen Mary's crown has just been completed. It is according to her own design, with an elegant lace-like tracery, wholly in diamonds, the Kohinoor being in the center. The crown weighs eighteen ounces. The Queen having insisted that it should not exceed the weight of an ordinary hat. It will be used at the coronation, after which the gems will be dismantled and used in regular articles of jewelry. The King will wear the crown that was his father's.

PRINCES OF IMPORTANCE

Two Royal Families with Several Princesses to One Solitary Prince Sole Heir to the Crown of His Country.

Two interesting groups of children are those belonging to the royal families of Italy and Russia. In each family there is but one boy, a proportion that is not pleasing to a king anxious for his direct descendant to succeed him as ruler. Czar Nicholas II. of Russia was particularly unfortunate.

low for smartness and good taste. When the bands of insertion have been laid around the opening, coming up close to the edge at front, back and sides, the little triangular pieces at the corners are snipped out, which leaves a very becoming square neck opening.

nate in being the father of four pretty girls before a son came to bless his home and prepare to take his place. The first of his daughters was Olga, born in 1895. Then came Tatjana, born in 1897; Marie, born in 1899, and Anastasia, born in 1901. With four daughters and no son the hopes of the czar and of all Russia were at a low ebb when, on August 12, 1904, the Czarevitch Alexis was born, and the hopes of those not in direct line of the descent of the crown were cast down. King Victor Emmanuel III. of Italy was married in 1896 to Princess Helene of Montenegro. Their first daughter, Princess Iolande, was born in 1901; Princess Mafalda was born in 1902; then came Prince Humbert, the heir apparent, born September 15, 1904, and the Princess Giovanna, born in 1907.

PREACHER HELD AUCTION

Sold Off the Young Men of Baptist Church for a Mess of Pottage.

Some were worth 250 beans, some were worth 5 beans. It was all according to the popularity of the young man.

The sale room was the parlor of Mrs. W. T. Robinson's house one evening last week and the auctioneer Rev. W. H. McLeod, of the Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson had a number of young people at their home and after several games and a programme of music the young men were put up by auction to be bought by the girls as partners for supper.

It would not be fair to state who fetched high prices and who low prices. It is enough to know that the incident was the cause of a heap of fun and Mr. McLeod made as good an auctioneer as he is a preacher.

Prune Dressing for Fowls

Soak prunes over night. Pare enough apples to make as much in quantity as you have prunes. Mix the soaked prunes and apples first removing the stones from the prunes, and cutting the apples into pieces of the size of prunes. Add a few bread crumbs and suff the fowl with this mixture.

WILL AVENGE A ROYAL MURDER

King Peter of Serbia is Put "in Coventry" by Monarchs

(Colonial Press Despatch)

June 10.—King Peter of Serbia, whose last chance to break the ostracism of European courts because of the foul murder of King Alexander and Queen Draga has gone, with the refusal of Emperor

KING PETER OF SERVIA

Francis Joseph of Austria to grant him a proposed audience.

King Peter's tenure of the throne of Serbia has been one of lonely solitude, unbroken by friendly overtures from the surrounding European courts. Time and again this monarch has signified his intention to travel abroad to take part in the court functions of his neighbors. All overtures on his part, however, have been repulsed by those to whom they have been made, and he sits in lonely majesty upon a throne steeped in the blood of a murdered king and queen.

WAY WITH CUSTARD

Prevents This Sweet from Curdling

When baking custard in the oven set the dish in a dripping pan with a little sweet water in the tin. It is so simple that it seems unnecessary, but it prevents water from gathering in the custard. The temperature of the custard may also be easily changed by adding cold water to the dripping pan. Thus the custard is kept from curdling.

A CHOICE OF TABLE LINEN

Wise Housewives Used a Magnifying Glass Before Buying

Somehow or other, when there is a large family the linen chest always needs replenishing. Ink spilled on the best damask tablecloth, frequently launderings near the linen cloth in holes, and the housewife, therefore, is always on the lookout for the sale of table linen.

She may acquire reduced linens at reasonable prices, but the best is never sold at extraordinary low prices.

Our great-grandmothers, when they went forth to buy linen, would attend the sales with a magnifying glass, and through this they would scan the threads, to see that they lay close and flat.

WITHOUT TUCKS

Sleeves May be Arranged to Lengthen by Simple Plans

To avoid making tucks in the sleeves of dresses for growing children, run a piece of tiny linen tape through the French seam on the inside of the sleeve. Fasten this at the wrist, and another shorter piece at the armhole. Draw up the tape to the desired length and tie at the armhole. In this way the sleeves may be lengthened or shortened as need be. This is especially convenient for infants.

Jim Flynn and Carl Morris have finally signed articles for scrap on July 4. The go will take place down in Oklahoma. Both of the participants have agreed not to engage in any battles between now and then.
