Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.
Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.
Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

MORE CLOTHES FOR TILLIE

Keep Tillie On Her Toes
Tillie will stand up if you paste her on cardboard before cutting out the figure. To keep it from curling, paste another piece of paper on the back of the cardboard. When it has dried, cut out close to black lines and bend back the base. Then you can dress her in her new clothes.
HERE are some more of TILLIE THE TOILER'S new clothes. At right is a smart lounging pajama suit, and in the center a new evening gown in which Mac thinks she looks stunning. The smart little jacket shown below goes with the evening gown, of course. Tillie is one of the lucky girls who can wear almost any shade, but certain colors suit her best. Which do you think they are? Make a number of tracings of the cut-outs, color them differently and try them on Tillie.
Watch for some more of TILLIE'S new clothes tomorrow.
