Independence Day Duly Celebrated

Varden Singers Hold Party Last Night to Mark Norwegian Anniversary

Instead of holding their regular practice last night, members of the Varden Singers staged a celebration of the anniversary of the Declaration of Norwegian Independence. A program of music was presented after which cards were played, community singing indulged in and dancing enjoyed. The ladies were in general charge of the affair and provided delicious refreshments. There were about seventy persons present.

MAN CONFESSES IN NEW YORK TO COMPLICITY IN LINDBERGH KIDNAPPING

Following Curtis' confession, the search of coastguard vessels off the Virginia coast for alleged kidnapers was discontinued.

Dr. J. F. Condon of New York said it was no surprise to him that Curtis' supposed negotiations had been a hoax. In fact, he had felt sure for some time that they were a fake.

Fleischer Sought

Max Fleischer, gangster leader, was being sought in Mexico yesterday for questioning in connection with the kidnaping and murder.

It was being proposed yesterday that the New Jersey state legislature put up a reward of $50,000 for the bringing of the kidnapers and murderers to justice.

SKIDEGATE

The Queen Charlotte Islands have been experiencing unusually warm and dry weather conditions for this time of year. It is an odd occurrence for Island people to have to water their gardens in May.

The City Council has Declared this to be

CLEAN-UP WEEK

The City of Prince Rupert has fallen in line with other cities of Canada in organizing a Clean-up Week. The present is a time when all the citizens are asked to see that their premises, front and back, are spic and span with all loose cans picked up, filth cleared away and neatness and tidiness replacing slovenliness.

Citizens are also urged to repair and paint their fences, to paint the house or outbuildings if necessary and to generally keep in line with modern civilization.

Everyone knows that these are difficult times but no one can afford to look poor, even if he is poor. Much can be done at little expense to make the shop front bright, to brighten up the outbuildings or to overhaul the interior. The condition of the home has an effect on every member of the family.

Several persons were only last week making remarks about the appearance of some of the smaller stores in the city where neither landlord or tenant was willing to paint the shop front. The windows never looked really attractive where the paint on the shop front was badly worn or had a shabby appearance. The opinion expressed was that it helped business to keep the place attractive. People do not like to shop in a place that seems to be down at heel.
