Currie met the ball first time but his piledriver shot skimmed inches over the cross bar. Bussanich was right back again a moment later and put in a lovely effort right in the top corner of the goal which Smith caught cleverly and easily cleared, This was followed by a scrimmage in front of the Regiment goal. Hunt fell on the ball in an effort to clear his lines and was adjudged to have handled in the penalty area. A penalty was promptly awarded but Baptie's shot from the spot just missed the far post by inches. After several minutes of midfield play Legion attacked again and Johnny Murray put in a beauty but his shot was just over the bar and a grand opportunity for his team to take the lead was lost. Play was next transferred to the other end and Norrington got through but his parting effort was put be-

Redpath next had a shot for the Regiment but Gurvich saved at the expense of a corner which was finally scrambled away. The Legion put in a long shot which Smith misjudged as he advanced from his goal and the ball sailed into the top corner of the net. The Regiment, nettled by this unexpected turn of events, went all out to get the equalizer. Two minutes later they were rewarded when Watson, who had taken up the atack, accepted a lovely pass from Walters and easily scored to once nore level the scores. Big Right-Hander Leads Athletics to Fine Victory Over Tigers-Pepper Martin in Game

PHILADELPHIA, May 18:-Big George Earnshaw allowed the Detroit Tigers but four scattered hits and led the Philadelphia Athletics to a shut-out victory at Shibe Park yesterday afternoon. Manager Connie Mack had made an effective shift in his infield for this occasion. The Athletics made both their runs in the seventh inning and gathered seven hits in all.

Pepper Martin was back on the line-up of the St. Louis Cardinals after having been out of the game for three weeks with an injured shoulder. First time up, he drew a connected with a double which accounted for two runs that helped
